Dear Mr. Mills:

I am just back from my holiday and find your letter of the twenty-ninth saying that you and James Kinnear had planned to make a New Year's call on me. I am so sorry to have missed you.

Please give me a call again when Mr. Kinnear is in town. I should so like to see you both.

I am with you, too, in thinking that he should be an Allegheny Trustee. What can we do about it?

Very sincerely yours

Ida M. Tarbell
