Allegheny Debaters Win from Mt. Union

Friday's Programmes Close Season with Four Victories and No Defeats

A double victory over Mt. Union College in a discussion of the closed shop question brought the debating season to a successful close last Friday evening. Allegheny's negative debated Mt. Union here, and the affirmative debated at the Alliance school. The decision in the local debate was 3-0, and the verdict for the contest at the Ohio school was 2-1 in favor of Allegheny.

Dr. S. S. Swartley presided at the debate held in Ford chapel, and Prof. J. M. Scott, of Mt. Union, presided at the one held in the Alliance High School auditorium. The judges for the debates were at Meadville—Prof. Chas. W. Coulter, Prof. E. G. Frail and the Rev. John W. Love; at Alliance—A. A. Honnold, The Drs. Swartley, Littell, McClean and Thomas were the coaches for the two Allegheny teams. The Mt. Union team, which debated here occupied the main part of their argument with a defense of unionism and an attack upon all plans proposed as substitutes for the closed shop

The Allegheny team contended that the closed shop would lead to industrial warfare or labor domination and that there was a better alternative in employee representation. The local team received a unanimous decision.

At Alliance the Allegheny team defended the closed shop as the only effective method of safeguarding collective bargaining. The Mt. Union team answered this by an attack on the inherent objectionable features of unionism.

The two Mt. Union teams were as follows: Affirmative—J. E. Naylor, Margaret Wagner and Geo. L. King; negative—E. G. Newell, Arthur Milne and L. R. Rufenacht. The two Allegheny teams were made up of: Affirmative—John Bozic, Robert Leeper and Julian Ross; negative—Ralph Demmler, J. E. Larson and Mortimer Graham.

Senior Dance Is Enjoyable Affair

FULTON'S COLLEGIATE ORCHESTRA, OF PITTSBURGH, FURNISHES MUSIC.

About one hundred couples attended the Senior Hop, which was held last Thursday evening in the college gymnasium. The dance was an all-college affair, which is sponsored by the Senior Class every year. Fuller's Collegiate Orchestra, of Pittsburgh, provided the music, which was a feature of the evening. Allegheny students were especially interested in Albert Trezise, ex-'22, who entertained with his novelty playing on the clarinet.

The dance was chaperoned by President and Mrs. F. W. Hixson, Dr. and Mrs. O. P. Akers, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Darling, Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Hammett, and Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Russo.

CLASSIC PLAY PLEASES GOOD-SIZED AUDIENCE

"JULIUS CAESAR" IS ACCURATE REPRODUCTION OF LIFE OF TIMES.

"Julius Caesar," the moving picture brought to Allegheny by the Classical Club, was witnessed in the Chapel last night by an appreciative audience. The play had been heralded as one of the best of its kind, and in many respects it lived up to the reputation.

The film opened with Calus Julius Caesar at his 20th birthday and briefly followed him through acquaintances with pretty Cornelia, daughter of Lucius Cinna; their secret marriage, which incurred the wrath of Sulla, then Director of Rome; the annulment; and Caesar's exile. Then followed his military campaigns, marriage to Calpurnia and political triumph, ending with the consulship.

The scenes depicting the weird religious rites and peculiar habits of the Gauls were especially faithful to record. The fact that the scenes were photographed in and around Rome lent special interest to the play and permitted a close adherence to the true facts of history.

In several instances sheer numbers gave beauty to the picture, 20,000 appearing in some of the scenes. The interest of the audience was held to the last, and at the climax, they were thrilled when Caesar was killed and 20,000 created a panic in Rome.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS SONG SERVICE.

A song service was held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms at the regular hour on Sunday evening, at the close of which the installation of officers was resumed. Sylvia Barnes was installed in the office of Undergraduate Field Representative.

ATHLETIC PROGRAMME DISCUSSED BY DR. LEE

ALLEGHENY SPORTS WILL NOT BE PROFESSIONALIZED.

In a brief but very forceful speech in Chapel last Thursday, Dr. Lee presented Allegheny's athletic problems and programme as they are outlined by the Athletic Board of Control of which the speaker is a member.

Dr. Lee expressed his desire to rectify an erroneous impression which prevails among some students and alumni, that Allegheny is engaged in a stupendous campaign for athletics. While a new and more definite athletic programme is being followed, yet Allegheny will not sacrifice scholastic attainments or any other phase of college work for the sake of athletics.

The speaker then reminded the students of Allegheny's scholastic prestige; that the college is in class "A". Cognizant of this pleasing fact Dr. Lee believes that in every way Allegheny should maintain this high rating, adding that he thought the Glee Clubs, the debating teams, journalistic endeavor, and all extra-curricular activity should be in "A" class.

With this goal in mind, the speaker said athletics, too, should be on the average which Allegheny maintains in general. To establish athletics on this high standard, it is not necessary to professionalize the programme or to invite men to come here merely for their athletic prowess. Rather, the athletic programme should and will be consistent with scholastics. Athletes can not enroll at Allegheny unless they are students and men of high moral standing.

In concluding, Dr. Lee stated that further information upon this subject may be had by consulting either Arthur Kramer or Russell Doing, who are the students' representatives on the Athletic Board of Control.

DR. CRAWFORD SPEAKS AT CORNERSTONE LAYING

PRESIDENT EMERITUS OF ALLEGHENY IS ORATOR AT SHADYSIDE EXERCISES.

Dr. William H. Crawford, president emeritus of Allegheny College, recently spoke to several hundred students, parents and faculty members of Shadyside Academy at the new school site in O'Hara township, Pittsburgh. The exercises were centered around the laying of the cornerstone of the first building to be erected. Dr. Crawford was the principal orator for the occasion. He lauded the efforts of the committee and the vision of the prophet, Mrs. Rowe, who saw the possibilities of the expansion of Shadyside Academy into a country school, and acted.

Dr. Crawford said, in part: "This day marks the beginning of a new and important epoch in the history of Shadyside Academy. I question whether any educational institution in Pittsburgh has in recent years taken a more significant step forward. Some one in this region has been seeing visions. Such things as this do not come about by chance. Prophets see and tell the vision. Wise men heed the prophetic message and act. So it must have been here. I know not who the prophet was. But I do know that what I have seen this day is much out of the ordinary. With all my heart I congratulate the officers, the faculty, the alumni and friends of Shadyside Academy on the new opportunity which is going to come to you.

The audience, after a silent prayer, sang the doxology and heard Dr. Crawford pronounce the invocation.

President Hixson delivered an address on the problems confronting the people of the United States last Monday evening at the annual banquet of the Men's Federated Bible Classes of Oil City.

MAY LITERARY MONTHLY HAS BEEN PUBLISHED

CHRONOLOGY CONTAINS SOME INTERESTING ITEMS.

Another "Literary Monthly" has been put into circulation during the past week; this makes the fifth number published this year. It contains short stories, a sketch, an essay, and poems of merit. The Chronology has made up for its failure to appear in last month's issue and is made more applicable to college life than it has been in previous issues.

The subtle humor in "The Gentle Hen of Verona," by Jerome Hixson, and the pathos of Verona and Mrs. Dewey are remarkable. The situation is saved by the common sense of Aunt Cordelia. The story lacks neither suspense nor single impression and is written in the author's usual clever style.

"The Swan Song," by George Bird, illustrates the theme that ambition and love of a woman may drive a man to accomplish the downfall of mighty forces, but that there may also be other forces into which we dare not probe. This is treated in a very original way with the highest point of interest occurring in a dream.

The familiar essay, "On Growing Bald," by George Bird, wins its place by virtue of its humor. While the author is inclined to use a long word in preference to a short one, his vocabulary becomes a part of his style and adds to the general effect.

"Yes, Darling," by Lois Halderman, is a sketch picturing an Allegheny girl in 1933, when her children are perusing her A-book. Perhaps this may be a sufficient warning to every girl so that she will never act so ignorantly or insipidly.

The poetry, by Lois Halderman, is excellent work. "Apart" is worthy of notice both in meter and rhyme as well as in thought. "No" and "No Hope" are clever satires on college life.

It has been suggested that the new Campus staff as proposed by the Lit will be more efficient than the present group. At any rate, the idea deserves thought.

STUDENT WORKERS TO CONDUCT SERVICES

Y. M. C. A. MEN WILL VISIT CATTARAUGUS THIS WEEK-END.

In response to a request sent from that community, six Alleghenians will leave Friday night or early Saturday morning for Cattaraugus, New York, where they will conduct a campaign to interest the young people in attending college and attaining the worth-while things of life.

Saturday afternoon a hike or outdoor meet will serve to acquaint the boys with the campaigners and to establish personal contact with them. Saturday night a banquet will be given, at which time special music and short talks will entertain the young men. Sunday morning addresses will be given in the churches, and Sunday afternoon will be devoted to a men's and boys' mass meeting as well as to personal conferences. The men will leave Cattaraugus late Sunday afternoon.

The fact that Allegheny was the college chosen to do this service is recognized with a certain feeling of pride, for the choice indicates the esteem of that community for this institution. Incidentally, it will be an excellent opportunity for presenting Allegheny's many advantages to the high school students there, and it may result in bringing to Allegheny more of the kind of men that the college wants.

The men who will represent the college are Carlyle T. Boynton, John H. Bozic, Sidney L. Carlson, Mortimer E. Graham, Charles W. Havice, and John E. Larson.

According to the report from the polls this morning, Frank P. Miller, '07, is having an easy time winning his fight for the nomination for State Senator on the Republican ticket. Mr. Miller is on the executive committee of the Board of Trustees of Allegheny and has been an influential man in the affairs of the college.

Fraternities Nominate Candidates For Senate

Election Will be Held at Bentley on May 26, One Man from Each Group

In accordance with the provisions of the revised constitution of the Men's Senate, nominations from the various fraternities were submitted to the secretary of the Senate Monday. From the three advanced by the group, one will be chosen by the men of the college at a general poll to be held at Bentley Hall Friday, May 26. The eight or nine men chosen will act as the Inter-fraternity Council and the governing body of the college for the coming year.

As will be noted from the list of nominees, only the organized groups are represented. By submitting a petition signed by ten unaffiliated men, non-fraternity men will be allowed a place on the ballot to be presented on May 26. Only one such petition will be received.

The nominees are as follows:

Phi Kappa Psi — Larson, Willis, Henry.

Phi Gamma Delta — Murphy, Cochran, Jolly.

GRADUATE OF 1919 DIES AT JAMESTOWN.

Jamestown, N. Y., May 9.—

Miss Helen Ruth Abrams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Abrams, died at the family home, 73 Fairmount avenue, Jamestown, N. Y., Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock, aged 25 years. She was born in Jamestown, Jan. 24, 1897, and was graduated from Jamestown High School with the class of 1914, and from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., with the class of 1919. After her graduation, she taught successfully for a year in Lakewood High School, where she endeared herself to the hearts of her pupils and to the community.

Miss Abrams was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city and of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority of Allegheny College. Besides her parents, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. P. W. Johnston, of Elmira, N. Y., and Miss Mary E. Abrams, of New York city.

ALLEGHENY BOTANISTS FIND RARE FLOWERS

SUN-DEW AND PITCHER PLANT ARE FOUND FOR FIRST TIME IN THIS SECTION.

Pymatuning Swamp now holds extraordinary fascination for a group of Allegheny botanists, for some rare specimens of plant nature were found there last week. Dr. Darling, John Bird, Oscar Cartwright and Paul Mook, loaded with a couple of pup tents, set out from Meadville on Saturday and returned Monday afternoon with several much-prized flowers, and stories of many more.

The researchers reported the swamp to be in a very beautiful state at this time, with nearly all of the more common types of flowers and trees at their best. In addition, the party brought back specimens of some plants that have never been found in these parts before, notably the sun-dew and the pitcher plant. Orchids of both yellow and pink variety were seen. A cranberry plant was also among the finds.

Peculiar types of animal life were found as well. Many birds, snakes and insects were much in evidence. Although none of the original users were about, several arrow-heads were brought back. In all, the four men collected a very interesting and varied assortment of nature's best.

TOWN MEMBERS OF WOMEN'S SENATE ARE CHOSEN.

Election of town members to the Women's Senate yesterday resulted in the selection of Nellie McQuiston as First Senior Town Member, Maria Avery as Second Senior Town Member, and Martha Harper as Junior Town Member. This completes the choice of the women's governing board that was begun last week.

Phi Delta Theta—MacGowan, Bozic, Loomis.

Delta Tau Delta—Shaeffer, Wise, Bates.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Miller, Kinney, Hitchens.

Beta Upsilon — Gergely, Marsh, Mack.

Alpha Chi Rho—Bollinger, Blodgett, Wimmer.

Phi Alpha Kappa—Sparks, Powell, McGarrath.

With the election of a new Senate from this group, the 1921-22 Senate of Messrs. Eaton, president, Booth, Severn, Dundon, Virtue, Kofford, Weaver and Bingham, automatically passes out of authority. This group has had before it matters that have had considerable influence upon college life, notably the honor system. An attempt has also been made to eliminate graft from college activities, with more or less success. The new Senate will have one less trouble before it, for with the reversion to supervised exams, no trials of violated honor need appear before it. Its chief duty will be a maintenance of peaceful inter-fraternity relationships on the hill.

MISS SPALDING ATTENDS CONVENTION OF DEANS

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION OF DEANS OF WOMEN HELD AT PENN STATE.

Deans of Women of Pennsylvania met for the first time at Pennsylvania State College at a general conference held Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13. Allegheny College was greatly honored in that Miss Alice H. Spalding presided at the conference of the Deans of Women in Colleges and Universities. Miss Thyra W. Amos, Dean of Women, University of Pittsburgh, presided at the general conference.

The general conference was divided into three different groups, one for the Deans of Women in Colleges and Universities, another for the Deans of Women in Normal Schools, and still another for Deans of Women in High Schools.

Problems of girls' college life were discussed which were:

1. "Constitutions and Authority of Student Government Associations," Mrs. Richard Frances, Trustee, Bryn Mawr College.

2. "The Problem of the Superficial Girl," Florence Root, Dean of Pennsylvania College for Women.

3. "The Point Scale and Census System," Anna R. Garey, Dean of Women, Bucknell University.

A permanent annual association for the Deans of Women of Pennsylvania was formed at this conference. A reception was held at the home of President and Mrs. John M. Thomas for the guests, at which President Thomas gave an address of welcome.

DR. CHURCH OUTLINES HIS EUROPEAN TOUR

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT TOWN Y. W. C. A.

A very entertaining travelogue by Dr. H. W. Church, of Allegheny College, was given before an audience of women at the Y. W. C. A. down town, on Friday evening, illustrated by numerous up-to-date views of European cities and scenes, making it much more interesting than a mere oral description of the places could have been. Dr. Church was assisted by Dr. C. J. Ling, also of the college, who operated the camera.

The pictures were all recent ones and in connection with each, Doctor Church had something interesting to narrate, besides giving a careful description, so that the lecture of over an hour was one of profit for every one interested in travel.

DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE GIVE REPORTS TO Y. M. C. A.

REV. HENRY S. LEITZEL TELLS INTERESTING EXPERIENCES.

Reports on the recent State Officers' Conference at Pittsburgh were made by the delegates at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday.

C. T. Boynton outlined the program of the conference in a general manner, emphasizing that the many suggestions offered by the conference speakers may well be adapted to the local association. J. E. Larson followed Mr. Boynton with a presentation of the attractive program which the Silver Bay Conference affords this spring. Mr. Larson stated that the local Y. M. C. A. very much desires to have representatives at this conference, and that any one interested in this excellent opportunity for instructive recreation should interview the Cabinet.

C. H. Wills and C. S. Thoburn spoke on the deputation work as it is done in many other institutions. Special comment was made of the efficient system of this work as it is accomplished at Penn State. C. W. Havice outlined the new system of organization with reference to the State Council, of which J. E. Larson was elected a member. He also presented the budget plan as it was proposed and recommended at the conference.

H. S. Leitzel, '12, who has been serving in the fields of China and who is spending the winter in Meadville, gave a brief, but very interesting account of conditions in China.

RYTHMIC DANCER GIVES PROGRAMME AT HULINGS

FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORE GIRLS ASSIST MISS INGALLS IN PRESENTATION

Indoor gymnasium work of the girl students was brought to a very enjoyable climax on Saturday evening by a delightful program of rhythmic dancing given in the Hulings Hall gymnasium by Miss Ruth Ingalls, director of Miss Bentley's studio in New York.

Girls of the Freshman and Sophomore classes opened the program by a demonstration of the fundamental movements and exercises which are the basis of the more advanced work done by Miss Ingalls. The dance moods of Miss Ingalls were Mazurka by Chopin, Nocturne by Grieg, Gripen by Schumann, Marche Slave by Tchaikowsky and a Chopin Valse. Appropriately costumed, the dancer charmed the audience with her interpretations.

EDITORIAL

Moving-Up Day is only three weeks away. Is your class going to have the best float and stunts, or is it going to have the poorest ones? This is one of the days which is a real test of college spirit. If you are proud that you are an Alleghenian, start preparations for it now.

Weather, good athletes and efficient management combined to make the Seventh Annual Interscholastic Meet last Saturday one of the best in its history. Although the score would indicate otherwise, the events were always closely contested, and South was dependent upon seconds, thirds and fourths to gather the total that was accredited to that school. Erie Academy's uniformed band made enjoyable entertainment between events.

It is gratifying to receive the assurances of support of the athletic program from many of the stronger branches of our Alumni Association. To the central organization goes the credit of starting the movement for better athletics, but the assistance of each and every Alleghenian is needed to put the program across. Every man and woman must get in touch with the nearest branch, and every group must keep in close affiliation with the general organization.

The nominations for Men's Senate for next year brings the college very forcible to the realization that 1921-22 is nearly over and another class is coming into control. By the present system of organization, the governing body is an inter-fraternity council, with one representative from each group, organized or not.

The fraternities have done their part, by nominating men whom they consider best fitted for the responsibilities of the office. Every voting student must decide for himself the fitness of each candidate, not only of his own group, but of the other groups as well, for from the individuals of the Senate comes the voice of the body, and the voice of the body is the expression of the college. Consider these men then, as to the requisites of the office, school loyalty, fair-mindedness and ability.

That the college man does not realize his responsibility as a coming citizen, that he is walking on a false treadway, has been the allegation of many business and professional men of today. Rev. Hampton H. Hough brought the question very clearly before Allegheny students in his chapel talk several weeks ago.

Attendant to the victorious debating season, with its three unanimous decisions and no defeats, there has been one displeasing feature, the general indifference of a great part of the student body. Both home debates were upon fundamental industrial problems, problems that many of us will be grappling with in a few years—the question of the closed shop, the question of the Kansas Court plan for arbitration of industrial disputes—yet, the six chosen speakers who had spent many hours in careful research upon the matter were on both nights greeted by small audiences, made up largely of townspeople. Probably fifty per cent. of the men of each year's graduating class go directly into business of one sort or another. The other fifty per cent. enter one of the professions, all of which are utterly dependent upon business. However, when the problem of the relations between capital and labor arise in college forensics, scarce ten per cent. of the students are willing to "sit in at the hearing."

Certainly there is truth in the old thought that one is unwilling to profit by the experiences and lessons of another.

In the death of Helen Ruth Abrams, '19, the college mourns the loss of one of its sincerest alumni. A member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, Miss Abrams is remembered by many of the faculty and graduating class as a true friend. The sympathy of the college goes out to the family at this time.

In the "Literary Digest" of last week, a joke from the "Campus" was printed in "The Spice of Life" department.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Newton W. Chalker, '66, died at his home in Akron, O., on April 20. Mr. Chalker was a prominent attorney of that place.

Mr. Homer, '95, president of the Pittsburgh Alumni Association and an instructor in Schenley High School of that city, visited his alma mater last week. Miss Townley, '03, is also on the Schenley faculty.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many friends who brought happiness into the long days of Helen's illness by letters and expressions of remembrance. We can never forget the pleasure that they brought to her.

THE CHINESE LANTERN.

On June the first when Klee-O-Kleet puts on their Chinese play, no circumstance that I might meet could make me stay away; the toes of my expectant feet will all be turned that way. I would not miss this funny show put on in Chinese style to date with any girl I know and saunter mile on mile, and if my best girl would not go, on some one else I'd smile. The Kleet-O-Keets for many weeks have studied plays and plays, deciding to be Chinese freaks and act in Chinese ways—and when Olangtsi's wife but speaks, the buildings rocks and sways. Since nineteen eighteen, Allegheny has cheered old Tikipu and when she'll next come on the scene, they'll have to cheer her too though she be but a Chinese drudge, love-sick, work-sick, and blue.

Real lanterns made of red and white from far off Chinaland will swing above the stage that night and though I had to stand, I would not miss the novel sight for anything on hand. I'll buy my tickets weeks ahead to still my anxious fears of sitting on the curb instead, and listening to cheers, or hanging with a dizzy head from swaying chandeliers. The halls will all be locked that night in honor of the play; the keys will all be out of sight; the occupants away; in waves of colored Chinese light, the Chinese cast will sway. All Meadville knows about the play and to it they will throng to watch the Students paint away and hear small Mee Mee's song and after that eventful day they'll talk about it long. And on the night for which they wait, all trains will run one way, to carry folks across the state to the season's play; but when they clamor at the gate, they may be turned away.

Not Like Her.

"What dirty hands you have, Johnnie," said the teacher. "What would you say if I came to school like that?" "I wouldn't say nothing," replied Johnnie. "I'd be too polite."—Dellin-eator.

"I say, old man, I need fifty dollars badly, and haven't the least idea where to get it." "Glad to hear it. I thought perhaps you had an idea you could borrow it from me."—Puck.

We gratefully accept the advice contained in the article, "Proposed Staff for the Campus," which appeared in the April issue of the Literary Monthly, received May 12th. It is to be regretted that the composition of the advice delayed the issue as it did. But since one good turn deserves another, we suggest that the editor publish his Chronology and Anonymous articles separately under the well-known name "Pandora." With this arrangement, Allegheny would have an authorized JOKE publication similar to those of other colleges and also an unauthorized scandal sheet which would be popular about commencement.

Should the "Lit" continue its policy to usurp the material of the anonymous publications, an injunction is liable to be brought against it, which might prevent the publication of the May issue this coming July.

Someone has said that the current issue of the "Lit" if a foul number with its hen and swan stories.

HISTORY CLUB TAKES TRIP TO TITUSVILLE MONDAY.

R. E. Ware had charge of the program of the History and Political Science Club at its final meeting of the year, held Wednesday evening in the Quill Club room.

On Monday afternoon, last, about sixteen members of the club motored over to Titusville to inspect the first oil well ever drilled in the world. After dinner at the Mansion House, the club members visited the noted museum belonging to Mr. Bell—a rare collection of all available data on oils, petroleum, etc., newspapers saved since the Civil War, and an expensive collection of oil lamps from all parts of the world.

This little trip was the "grand finale" of the club's activities this year.

QUILL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR.

At the last meeting of the Quill Club, the following officers were elected to preside this year: Helen Bowman, chairman of the executive committee; Lois Halderman, secretary, and Courtney Dale, treasurer. "Best Paid Hard Work in the World"

IS the way a JOHN HANCOCK salesman described his work. He is a college graduate and in five years has put himself at the very top of his business.

He never yet has called upon a prospect without a previous appointment. The best life insurance salesmen today work on that plan, making it a business of dignity, such as any worthy and ambitious college graduate can find satisfying to his mental needs, and highly remunerative as well.

The man above quoted is the John Hancock's youngest general agent. This shows what college graduates of the right type can do in this business, how they can build up earning power and at the same time provide for an accumulated competence for the years to come.

Graduation is a vital period in your life and you are liable to hold to the business you start in. It would be well before making a definite decision to inquire into life insurance as a career. Address, "Agency Department."

South, of Youngstown Takes Interscholastic

Winners Amass 47 1-2 Points; Erie Central Second with 29 1-2 Points

South High School of Youngstown, easily won the honors of the day in the seventh annual interscholastic field and track meet held under the auspices of the Allegheny College Athletic Association, on Montgomery Field, Saturday afternoon. Ten teams from various cities competed in this annual Montgomery Field classic. The meet was run off in a very efficient manner, under ideal weather conditions and before a medium-sized crowd, including visitors from Erie, Pittsburgh, Youngstown and other points. Erie Academy High brought a band of 40 pieces in full uniform and furnished music between the many events.

This was the second consecutive time that South High School, Youngstown, has won this annual event, the same team having won handily in 1921. South High was at times closely pressed by the Erie schools, and Ashtabula Harbor High School. Avalon High, of Pittsburgh, proved somewhat of a disappointment, but it must be considered that it had only three men entered. Stapel proved Avalon's best point-getter and enabled that school to land sixth place out of the ten entrants.

Only one record, that of the 100 yard dash, established by Carmont, of Meadville, in 1914, was broken by Wilson, of Erie Central. Wilson covered the distance for the century in 10.1 seconds. Bohn, of Avalon, who ran in the fastest heat of the trials, was disqualified in the final race of the 100-yard dash for running in another man's lane. He was third man to finish in the finals.

The mile race was featured by 14 entries, one or more from each school represented and was a pretty event, many of the contestants remaining to the finish. Jones, Chautauqua, proved a dark horse in the pole vault, winning over all other contenders by taking first place at 10 feet. It took two hours to run off the pole vault and there was great excitement throughout the time that it held the boards.

The time for all events was consistent with the usual high school records, and most of the events were up to par.

The summary of the meet follows: Mile run—First, Kaihlainen, (Ashtabula Harbor); second, Behan (Erie Central); third, La Price (East High, Erie); fourth, Gintz (South High, Youngstown). Time—4:56.

440-yard run—First, Oakley (South High, Youngstown); second, Jacobs (South High, Youngstown); third, Griswold (Erie Central); fourth, Wilson (Erie Academy). Time—55:1.

ALLEGHENY TEAM IS IN SHAPE FOR ALFRED MEET

REMAINING MEETS ARE AWAY WITH ALFRED AND W. AND J.

This Friday the track squad journeyed to Alfred, New York to meet the university team of that place. Little is known of the strength of the New Yorkers but from the work done by Allegheny's men this season there is a strong possibility of another victory for our school.

All the men are in excellent condition because of their rest over last week-end. Coach Hammett has been giving the team plenty of work the last week and expects to enter the meet Friday with every man at his best. Several of the squad have broken their own records since the Geneva meet.

The next week the team goes to W. and J. where they will compete in the last meet of the season.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES DO NOT CHANGE STANDINGS

FOUR TEAMS ARE TIED FOR FIRST PLACE—FOUR FOR LAST.

The third week of inter-fraternity baseball was finished up with four good games of ball on the local diamond. Although the scores would indicate otherwise, several of the games were very closely contested. The results were:

Phi Kappa Psi, 12; Alpha Chi Rho, 6.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 7; Alpha Chi Rho, 6.

Phi Gamma Delta, 20; Delta Tau Delta, 6.

Phi Gamma Delta, 11; Non-Fraternity, 2.

ALUMNI ORGANIZATIONS

WILL SUPPORT ATHLETICS

PITTSBURGH, CLEVELAND AND CHICAGO GROUPS PLEDGE AID.

Moral and financial support of the athletic program has been offered by the different alumni organizations of the college.

The Pittsburgh association on May 5, heard addresses by Pres. F. W. Hixson and Graduate Manager S. S. Townsend upon the plan. Following the discussion and approval, officers for the coming year were elected. Fred L. Homer, '95, was selected as president and J. E. Isherwood, '20, secretary.

The Cleveland group on April 28, last, held a very spirited meeting with 81 former Alleghenians present. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee were guests for the occasion and the former outlined very concisely the new athletic program of the present regime. Heartily endorsement was given by the organization. An interesting feature of the luncheon was a talk by Rev. Dr. William L. Stidger, telling of his meeting with other Alleghenians in his trips around the world. Officers were elected at this time, including Louis Wells, president, Ida F. Preston, vice-president, and Mrs. William Hugh Fletcher, secretary-treasurer.

Twenty-five Chicagoans were present at a dinner in that city recently. Many classes were represented ranging anywhere from '69 to '20. Pres. A. W. Thompson's report of the Second Century Endowment Campaign was given by T. T. Allen, and Dr. Fred E. Breed read a report concerning the athletic program.

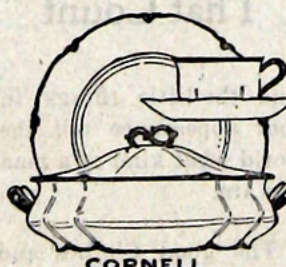

The same young woman who turns on the porch light before marriage, so that her "Sweetie" won't slip and fall, turns off the hall light, after marriage, to see if he will stumble on the stairs.
