TOY GYMNASIUM AND ROUGH TACTICS WIN

WESTMINSTER 31; ALLEGHENY 14

New Wilmington's Diminutive Floor and Foot Ball Style of Play Proves Too Much for the Champions—More a Closet Scuffle Than a Basket Ball Game.

The Allegheny boys lost the game to Westminster Monday evening by the score of 31 to 14. The New Wilmington aggregation quite out did themselves.

Although the treatment of the Allegheny men in the game itself, at the hands of both players and spectators, was not all that could be hoped for, the management banqueted the two teams after the game, which did much to clear the atmosphere.

Two weeks ago Westminster was defeated at Meadville in one of the cleanest games on record; last night Allegheny went down to defeat at New Wilmington under the vilest kind of rough work. The home team always sets the pace.

Defeat was generally predicted by those who profess to understand the relative abilities of the two teams when playing in a gym the size of Westminster's. There is no doubt but the little gymnasium with its low ceiling and cramped floor space is mainly responsible for the defeat. It is time a more rigid enforcement of the rules governing the size of a floor for the game should be enforced.

The boys played a good game, but in spite of their utmost efforts were unable to overcome the lead of the New Wilmington boys. Comfort threw three goals and Rossiter two. Elliott dropped six into the basket and Marks two and Deevers three. The fouling was very general but Westminster got the better of it on the scoring, throwing seven to Allegheny's four.

The game was very fast and rough. At times the identity of the players was lost in promiscuous scramble. It was easily seen that Westminster could still give Allegheny pointers when it came to foot ball.

Giesey was the only player severely injured but he received a bad one in the eye. It is reported that the management had a doctor, a trained nurse and a stretcher ready for the first Allegheny player down, so that on the whole, the players should consider themselves fortunate in escaping from a month's sojourn in a hospital.

The line-up:

Allegheny—14.		Westminster—31.
Rossiter.....	R F	.....Deevers
Mason.....	L F	.....Elliott
Comfort (Capt)..	C	.....Marks
Giesey.....	R G	..Patterson (Capt.)
Ferry.....	L G	.....McCrovy

Goals from field—Comfort 3, Rossiter 2, Deevers 3, Elliott 6, Marks 2, Patterson 1.

From foul—Comfort 4, Deevers 7.

Scorers—Russell McKay.

Timekeepers—Werner, Scott.

Referee—Jones.

Umpire—Williams.

PRESIDENT CRAWFORD RETURNS FROM MEXICO.

Reports a Delightful Trip.

President Crawford returned to Meadville February 1, in the midst of examination week, after a three weeks' pleasure trip in sunny Mexico, reporting a most delightful and profitable time.

The doctor went west via Chicago and Kansas City. His itinerary, after leaving this country, included Monterey, Saltillo, the famous battle-ground of Buena Vista, Mexico City, Aguas Calientes, Zocatecas and Chihuahua. The longest stops were at the City of Mexico and Chihuahua.

In Mexico City, President Crawford had the pleasure of meeting Miss Laura Temple, a graduate of this college, class of '93, now principal of the Keen Woman's College in Mexico. The institution has an attendance of two hundred, is beautifully situated on the edge of the new quarter of the city ,and is in a flourishing condition.

RECEPTION GIVEN BY KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

IN HONOR OF DEAN FRASER.

A Delightful Social Event—The New Beautifully-Fitted Sorority Rooms Crowded With Town and College Friends of K. K. G.

One of the most beautiful receptions ever held in Hulings Hall was that of Saturday afternoon, when the local chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma received their town and college friends in honor of Dean Fraser, who is a member of the sorority. The reception was held in the new assembly hall on the fourth floor, and in the adjoining sorority rooms, which have been beautifully fitted up by the generosity of Mr. Rist, whose daughter is a member of the active chapter, and Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran, whose gifts to the local chapter of Phi Kappa Psi are well known.

The rooms were artistically decorated with college and fraternity pennants and pink carnations. The Young Northwestern orchestra furnished music; and refreshments of coffee, chocolate, cake and sherbet, were served in the assembly hall. Mrs. William H. Crawford and Mrs. Walter Harper poured from three to four, when Miss Stem took Mrs. Crawford's place, and the latter received during the remainder of the afternoon. The reception line consisted of Miss Mabel West, of the active chapter, Dean Fraser, Mrs. William H. Crawford, Mrs. Frank C. Lockwood and Miss Rita McClintock.

COLLEGE COUNCIL TO BE ORGANIZED

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Proposed Plans for the Organization of a Representative Faculty-Undergraduate Organization—Tentatively Adopted by the Campus Committee, Pending the Approval of Faculty and Student-Body.

At a recent meeting of the committee which has been discussing the various questions having to do with the government of this publication, the matter of organizing a representative body for the discussion and settlement of such problems of this nature as shall arise in the future, was taken up and worked upon. The report of the sub-committee, consisting of Mr. Crawford, Mr. Phillips and Miss Milleren, was adopted with minor changes and is here published in full for the inspection and criticism of the whole student-body. The meeting adjourned sine die.

Report of Committee on the College Council.

ARTICLE I.

THOBURN PREACHES ON DAY OF PRAYER.

A MASTERFUL ADDRESS.

Large Audience Hears Dr. James M. Thoburn, Class of '81, Deliver Day of Prayer Sermon in College Chapel.

On January 25th the annual day of prayer was observed with usual services. Following the morning chapel service the sermon was delivered by the Rev. James M. Thoburn of the class of '81. Reverend Thoburn came as one of the Allegheny family. This fact alone warranted him a warm welcome and his scholarly effort proved his right in the good family. It is seldom that the student-body is privileged to listen to such a sermon—a sermon that was preached rather than delivered. To attempt to give a just idea of the address is futile. The following is but a brief summary of the line of thought.

Hebrews II:1—"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen"—furnished the text. In enlarging upon this idea of faith. Dr. Thoburn took Moses as the great example of faith—the faith that leads men to do things.

Moses' life was reviewed to some length, in a way to set the old familiar story forth in a new light, showing his abounding faith throughout his whole career. The life of this prince, poet, philosopher, and legislator was divided into three parts. The history of his first forty years of his life is brief. Josephus gives but a slight sketch. It is known that his mother's influence over the boy and young man was great and altogether good. It placed in his heart that sympathy for the oppressed that characterized his whole life. It was the great preparation for the crisis and the decision that came at the age of forty.

At this period it became necessary for him to refuse something in order to choose something. It takes a truly great character to utilize the refusals of life. Moses was such a man. It is to be remembered that this was the time of Egyptian supremacy. To be an Egyptian was counted greater than to be a king. In the case of Moses the matter of being an Egyptian was a matter that meant a kingship to him. Over against this there was the opportunity to claim his kinship with the Israelites. It was simply a question of a crown or a cross. Moses refused the crown in order that he might choose the cross. Jesus has said that no man shall make such a sacrifice without repayment. The price was paltry to the repayment.

Here a very practical lesson was drawn. We are all travelers and not sojourners. Before every man lie two roads. They are the broad and the narrow roads. They are through Egypt and through the desert. To all men there seem many ways. There seem to be many that are parallel to the narrow way. But when eternal issues are at stake there are but two ways. Jesus warned men from the broad way to the narrow.

Resuming the history again it was shown that after the choice came forty years in which to prepare. It was hard to wait until the world was ready for him. It is hard for every man to wait until the world is ready for him, after his choice is made. Men are too eager. They cannot abides God's time and God's own way. Moses experienced this. He had to

VALUABLE ADDITION TO BIOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

Interesting Set of Wax Figures.

A complete set of wax figures illustrating the "Development of the Chick" has recently been purchased by the biological department. The figures are on exhibition in the Ruter Hall laboratory for the benefit of all who desire to see them. They constitute a valuable addition to the biological department and are well worth general inspection.

15TH ANNIVERSARY OF ALPHA CHI OMEGA

CHAPTER ENTERTAINS ALUMNAE

Delta Chapter of Alpha Chi Celebrates Its Fifteenth Anniversary by Receiving Alumnae at Sorority Rooms.

The fifteenth anniversary of the founding of Alpha Chi Omega's Delta chapter was celebrated at the sorority rooms last Saturday evening by both the active chapter and town alumnae.

A program was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Clara Lord, several vocal duets by Mrs. Juvia O. Hull and Mrs. John Dick, a history of the sorority by Miss Jessie Merchant, vocal solos by Mrs. Dick and Miss Alice McDowell, and a paper by Miss Bash. After the program, the rejoicing Alpha Chis sat down to an excellent banquet, where gayety reigned supreme till a late hour.

QUILL CLUB MEETS.

The Quill Club met last evening at the First Presbyterian church dining room and after indulging in an excellent supper listened to a program consisting of short stories, which were delightfully entertaining. Following is the program:

"The Widow's Veil"....Mr. W. S. Taft
"A Coincidence".....Miss Ottoway
"The Intervention of a Man".....
.....Mr. J. R. Crawford
"Ol' Uncle's Prope'ty" .....
.....Miss Courtenay
"He Was a Stranger" .....
.....Mr. W. P. Sturtevant

REGULAR MEETING OF CLASSICAL CLUB

TWO EXCELLENT PAPERS.

"Similes From the Illiad" and "The Early Dress of Grecian Women" Were the Subjects Treated.

The Classical Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday, January 23, in the classical room of the library. Two excellent papers made the evening one to be remembered. Mr. Stuntz treated "The Similes of the Iliad" in a pleasingly discursive manner, illustrating his paper with well-selected references; and Miss McAllister, discussing the "Early Dress of Grecian Women," approached her subject in a most delightful way, describing the Ionic and Doric styles of dress, and comparing their simple charm to the complicated elegance which attends the "creation" of the modern "modiste." Both papers were of unusual merit and were highly appreciated by the club.

Notice.

The Washington's Birthday Banquet committee wishes to call the attention of alumni who expect to attend the banquet to the ruling made by the committee that the number should be limited to 350 and that all college students and alumni must buy tickets before February 17 in order that the remainder of the tickets may be offered on sale to the upper classmen in the Preparatory School.

Our Preps.

To the youngster who enters upon his first day at school with the established reputation of an "elder brother" to support and a good deal of confidence in his ability to do it—a defeat seems horribly ignominious. The natural inclination is to give up the whole business on the spot and retire again to the blissful privacy of alphabet blocks and saw-dust animals. Responsibility is a heavy load to bear; failure seems to render it utterly unbearable. And it is not until the reassuring voice of the idolized "elder brother" comes to sympathize and strengthen and encourage, that the new confidence is born, and the new trial is resolved upon.

The recent defeat of the newly-organized Preparatory School basket ball team on a foreign floor was a real disappointment to all who were interested in its success. Failure, however, away from home is always accountable, and high hopes were entertained of a retribution to come, when a return contest should be played in the local gymnasium. But fate was unkind; the new suits failed to mystify the hostile forwards; and the balance of the final tally lay again with the opposing team.

So now, if with the true sympathy of an "elder brother," we as a student-body, can say or do anything to encourage the somewhat despondent novices in their run of hard luck, let them have the benefit of it. In organizing and equipping an athletic team under competent management, the Preparatory School has taken a pronounced step in the right direction. The spirit shown throughout has been admirable. They deserve the loyal backing of the college with which they are affiliated.

The headquarters of the Philippines Constabulary have sent letters to the different colleges of this country requesting the names of students who will accept positions as officers in the Philippines. The Constabulary, which is the civil police force of the government, consists of three hundred and twenty-five commissioned officers and five thousand men.

ERIE HIGH DEFEATS PREP REDOUBTABLES

SCORE: 17 TO 9.

New Preparatory School Team Loses to Erie on Local Floor—Preps Played Hard but Seemed to be up Against it.

It takes more than enthusiasm to win. The fact was clearly shown on the floor of the college gym last Friday night. It was then that the Prep. basket ball team met Erie High School for the second time this season. The Preps were full of spirit and determined to down their opponents. They played hard and died game; but when the second half closed the score cards said 17 to 9 in Erie's favor.

The game was rough and tumble from the start. In this respect both teams played alike. Several times the ball made a beeline for the vaulted ceiling, so ambitiously did it leave the side lines. More than once the grouping of the players reminded one of a foot ball scrimmage.

Erie scored first and kept the lead till the end of the first half, when the score stood 6 6. In this half Stockdale and Tyrell did some good passing and the former threw three goals. For the visitors, Barger's passing was good and Wilson starred at throwing goals.

In the second half things looked bright for the Preps. On both sides the line-up changed. Weschler took Barger's place at Erie's center. Stidger, for the Preps, was put at forward. McMichael played at guard. But the visitors gained steadily during this half, Wilson, Rossiter and Williams throwing goals. Stockdale continued his good work. Tyrell played fast, passed well, but shot the basket in hard luck. French's fouls were especially in evidence. The throwing of fouls for the Preps was erratic.

Throughout the game the Prep. rooters stood loyally by their team. Quite a hit was made by the singing of a rooters' song adapted for the occasion. For the Preps. it is to be said that they have repeatedly shown up better in practice than in the Friday's game; and they are still determined to meet and conquer their Erie antagonists.

The team lined up as follows:

Preps—9.		Erie High—17.
Tyrell (Capt.)..	L F	.....Wilson
Duerr, Stidger..	r f	.....Rossiter
Stockdale.....	C	Barger-Weschler
French-McMichael	R G	...Williamson
DeArment.....	L G	.....Schrack

Goals from field—Stockdale 4, Wilson 3, Rossiter 1, Williamson 2. Goals on fouls—Wilson 5, Tyrell 1.

endure himself, a peculiar people, and finally disappointment. Then came the forty years in the wilderness where he seems to have been the loneliest character in all history. But it is to be remembered that in all this time he had that faith which is the substance of things hoped for, not seen. Finally his dream of life was realized, but the vital point is that he was faithful through it all.

The principal of self-denial has produced men who have moulded the destinies of nation. It is common to all men. Jesus Himself had the great choice to make on the mountain top. He was a great man, so the temptation came to Him and He chose the cross. No great thing comes about except through great labor. If the decision requires self-denial the journey through the desert requires it also. Moses' name was not carved upon the great pyramids to be a symbol of tyranny but his name was written upon the hearts of all men who love a great man of lofty purpose.

Lofty purpose comes to man only after the refusal and the choice. The great leader ever has the choice to make that means some denial of former pleasures.

DEPARTMENT OF DENTISTRY

The Fees for this Department Have Not Been Raised for the Season of 1905-06.

As a distinct part of the Medico-Chirurgical College, the Department of Dentistry offers superior advantages to its students. The clinics of the college present wide opportunities for the practical study and oral surgery, as well as supplying abundance of material for practical work in the Dental Infirmary. All of the privileges of the students of the Medical Department of the College are accorded to the Dental students. A complete system of quizzing and preparing the students for examination. Illustrated catalogue describing courses in full, and containing all information as to fees, etc., sent on request to

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR TRACK ATHLETICS

CANDIDATES BEGIN PRACTICE.

Excellent Prospect of an Inter-Collegiate Meet Between Geneva, Westminster, Grove City, and Allegheny.

The outlook for an indoor inter-collegiate contest between Geneva, Westminster, Grove City and Allegheny is very bright. Clark, Ginn, Giesey and Fish are a few of the most promising old men, and it is rumored that the new men, Delong and Deemer, will develop into strong track men. Giesey is also coming out for the shot put and Hickernell is a strong man with the hammer.

The remarkable showing Allegheny made last spring with only six men at Little Washington, beating out a score of competitors from W. U. P., and winning third place in competition with nine colleges, has done much to stimulate local interest in the old, time-honored sports. Football may still have its worshippers—but they are voiceless at present, and the newer game of basket ball claims a large share of our enthusiasm, but no sport holds such universal thrall over the human heart as the race. It is the great classical sport, and it has always been as well, the popular method of testing speed and endurance. The record of the gold and blue for the last three years has been a creditable one, but the time has come when the college should aim to send a delegation of athletes to any collegiate contest who would win the first place and be satisfied with nothing less.

NEW MATERIAL FOR CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT.

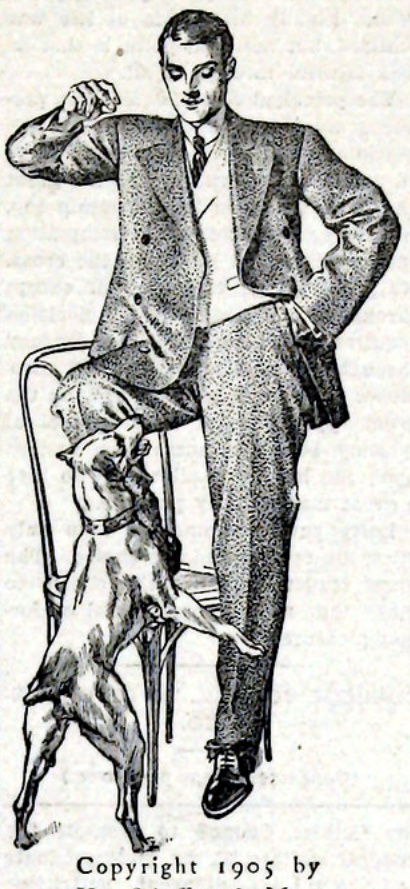

Valuable Acquisitions.

The Classical Department has recently received a noteworthy invoice of photographs and casts for use in the courses on Greek art and archaeology. Purchases of equal value will be made next year and the year following, by which time the equipment will be fully up to that of any college pursuing this lime of work.

The present purchase includes fifteen large carbons of the more notable pieces of Greek sculpture from the time of the Parthenon to the Roman period; casts of three slabs of the Parthenon frieze; busts of the Hermes of Praxiteles, the Indian Dionysus, commonly known as Plato, and the Psyche of Capua; casts of the shield of Athena Parthenos, the bas-relief Mourning Athena, and an Erinnys head from the Pergamon frieze. One hundred and fifty stereopticon slides will also be purchased in the near future.

The Girls' Glee Club is practicing enthusiastically for its numbers on the Pan-Musical program, February 16th. There are eighteen members of the club and the music is new and bright.
