Greatest Debate in the History of the College.

ONE LONG TO BE REMEMBERED

The Syracuse Team, Though Defeated, Made a Brilliant Showing.

At last Allegheny is thoroughly aroused from her lethargy along forensic lines. Early in the term renewed interest in debating began to assert itself. A debate was arranged for with Syracuse University and, at a preliminary debate Freeman, Sturtevant and Stockton were chosen to represent us as our debating team. Little then did we expect victory against so worthy an opponent. For Syracuse has engaged in many inter-collegiate debates and her preparation for this struggle was long and faithful. But now it is all over. "We have met the enemy and they are ours."

Last Thursday evening before a most encouraging audience in Ford Memorial Chapel, the opposing forces met, each confident of victory and well prepared to fight for it. The question was: "Resolved, That Trades Unions are Injurious to Industrial Welfare." Syracuse had the affirmative of the question. Each speaker was allowed 12 minutes and the rebuttals lasted 7 minutes each.

The judges were Hon. E. L. Lampson, Jefferson, Ohio; Judge Criswell, Franklin; Professor Gilman, of the Unitarian Theological School, Meadville. Doctor Flood acted as chairman.

The first speaker on the affirmative was Mr. Hartwell, of Syracuse University. After defining and introducing the subject in a very clear and able manner, Mr. Hartwell stated that the three essentials to Industrial Welfare are:

- 1—The Right to Work.
- 2—Incentive to Work.
- 3—Reward for Law.

and that to these essentials Trade Unions are directly opposed. He supported the first of these points by showing that he right to work is interfered with in the following ways:

- 1—Men are debarred from work because they do not join the Union.
- 2—They lessen the number of apprentices.

3—Strikes form a monopoly which dictates to workers.

The next speaker was Mr. R. G. Freeman, who handled the subject in his usual easy and masterful style which always carries conviction with it. He stated that Trade Unionism is the natural outcome of natural laws and needs no apology. It is a creation of necessity, an inevitable movement for self protection and self help—a system forced upon us to insure for the workingman fair play and the recognition of his rights to protection, justice and liberty.

Mr. Robert Park, the second speaker for Syracuse, followed in a very effective argument. He endeavored to prove that Labor Unions do away with the incentive to work and thereby injure Industrial Welfare. The desire to do one's best is taken away, for the amount of work and the kind of work a man may do is restricted. "And to enforce the rules," he said, "the Unions resort to strikes and violence, intimidation and boycott."

Mr. Sturtevant followed with a speech, the eloquence and logic of which will firmly establish his reputation as a debater. He showed how Trades Unions have raised the standard of living of the working man, and that they are the chief tool with which he can improve his condition. He mentioned the following ways in which unions have improved the conditions of their members who constitute the great bulk of workers.

- 1—By increasing wages.
- 2—By shortening the working day and thereby causing more men to be employed.
- 3—By their stand against child labor.

After a few lively songs by the student part of the audience, Mr. J. A. Mosher, the third speaker for Syracuse, stated that Labor Unions grossly violate the law. They refuse to incorporate on the ground that they would thus be amenable to the law. The Federal government, they consider as their most violent opponent and for their successes they depend on violence and unlawful means.

Mr. H. A. Stockton made the last speech for Allegheny. He emphasized the fact that for proofs we must not look to particular picked cases but to general cases. "Peace," he said, "Which means the degradation of the laborer, is not to be desired." Mr. Stockton argued that Trades Unions do not limit output and that they do not encourage strikes, but rather encourage the settlement of all difficulties between labor and capital in a peaceful manner.

R. G. Freeman made the rebuttal for Allegheny and did himself proud. He met every point of his opponents and saver for us what before had been a doubtful contest. Mr. Hartwell made the rebuttal for Syracuse in a telling manner but could not refute the weighty facts which were on the negative side.

The team from Syracuse had thoroughly mastered the subject, and their college may well be proud of her able representatives who, although defeated, are by no means dishonored.

Dr. Knudson Pleasantly Surprised.

Last Thursday Phil. VI., at their last recitation for the year, brought things to a climax by presenting Dr. Knudson with a beautiful study lamp. Mr. Farr made an eloquent presentation speech praising the course and its unrivaled expounder. Such phrases as "the Prince of Professors," etc., were profusely used. Dr. Knudson was thoroughly surprised, and replied in a happy vein, thanking the class for their ly referred all praise to the great and only Boy.

Then a photo of the class was taken and the last recitation was hilariously ended.

Philo-Franklin Contest.

The Philo-Franklin Centenary Oration Contest will be held in Ford Memorial Chapel on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. This yearly contest has been one of extreme interest ever since it was introduced and Wednesday's performance promises to be no exception. The contestants are Wood, '05, Humbert, '09, and McLaughlin, '07. The winner will represent Philo-Franklin in the inter-society contest.

The New Campus Board.

The personnel of The Campus board for 1905 is as follows:

Editor-in-chief, Frank E. Baker; as associate editor, Harry E. Stone; local editor, Albert A. Reavley; reporters—religious, Miss Adelaide Ottoway; literary society, William C. Cravener; society, David A. Bolard. Athletic editor, Joseph E. Morrison; alumni editor, Claude H. Dye; exchange editor, Frank R. Frost.

Last Wednesday evening the Junior class entertained the Seniors at the Ponce de Leon Springs. In spite of the wet weather the pipe of peace was smoked and the hatchet buried forever.

Allegheny Wins Two More Games.

O. W. U. Defeated in a Brilliant Tenth Inning Contest.

Allegheny defeated the baseball team from the Wesleyan University of Ohio, on Friday afternoon in one of the most exciting games ever played in the city. The game was anybody's until the winning run was made in the eleventh inning. Two more equally matched teams could not have been gotten together and it was not until in the last inning that Allegheny's chances for winning became at all hopeful.

The visiting team was an excellent test of mettle of the home team. They presented by far the strongest aggregation of ball players that has appeared here this season.

They came here with a long list of victories, having won 24 out of the 28 games played this season. Grove City College, W. and J. University of West Virginia, Waynesburg and Case are among the number of those who have gone down before them.

In no other game played here this season did the spectacular enter to such a degree. At times the play was little short of sensational and caused even the down-town dead-heads, whose chief delight is in knocking the locals, to open their eyes in amazement.

Lockwood, while a little unsteady at times, on the whole pitched a masterly game. He was most effective when men were on bases and on several occasions settled down and prevented the scoring of the visitors.

The work of the outfielders was the most sensational. Wynn received a great ovation from the crowd in the fourth inning and again in the ninth for catches which seemed impossible. He secured the ball in the fourth inning by a daring leap just as the ball was about to strike the ground. Both Comfort and Turner prevented the visitors scoring by completing plays almost as difficult. Comfort's timely hitting was, to a great extent, responsible for the victory. In the first inning he sent Turner across the plate by a pretty single to deep center. Again in the eleventh inning with the bases full, he enabled Lockwood to score the winning run by driving a slashing single to left field. The infielders are to be credited with three fast double plays which on two occasions retired the side.

Allegheny scored the first run of the game in the first inning. Turner got first in balls. Russell advanced him by a pretty sacrifice. Comfort singled to center scoring Turner.

O. W. U. scored one in the fourth inning. Thomas rolled an easy one down the third base line and before the fielder could get it, he had reached first. Smith drew a base on balls. Ruhlman then dropped the ball back of second just beyond reach of the players scoring Thomas and reaching first himself. Danford was hit by a pitched ball. With the bases full Lockwood settled down to work. Ilger sent an easy grounder in front of Lock, who threw to Mook in time to enable the latter to retire the man on first, thus completing a double play.

Three singles in the sixth inning enabled O. W. U. to score another run. Allegheny evened up matters in the next inning. Smith couldn't hold Wynn's grounder and allowed the runner to reach first. Lewis singled to right. Heilmann drove the ball to Fink and retired Wynn. Mook flew one to short. Lockwood hit the first ball pitched so hard that none of the infielders could see it. Lewis scored.

Both teams scored in the ninth inning. Ilger reached first on Selkregg's failure to handle his grounder. Webb struck out. Turner pocketed Goode's drive to right center after a desperate run. Van Wicklar hit a high bouncer to Lockwood, who threw the ball out of Lewis' reach. Ilger scored on the play.

Heilmann reached first on Smith's error. Mook went out to Van Wicklar. Lockwood forced Heilmann at second. Russell reached first on Ilger's failure

A Few Pointers About Clothes.

Don't infer that our goods are inferior to the best makes, because they sell for less money.

Because the doctor found a harness under the bed he had no reason to infer that the patient swallowed a horse. We know we have today the strongest line of Union Made clothing in the city. This is talking big, but we have the goods and the prices to back it.

Won't you step in and give us a chance to show you these goods and see whether or not our talk is right.

To keep the Campus in the forefront of college weeklies, a place which it holds, is no small undertaking. On our part, we shall try to make the paper, under our management, representative of every phase of our varied life and shall endeavor to conserve the traditions of our "Old Allegheny" to and live up, in every respect, to the possibilities of our "New Allegheny."

PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

The Pennsylvania College of Music held its annual commencement exercises last night in Ford Memorial chapel. The auditorium was crowded with a cultured and refined audience. Miss Helen Mariam DeArment, the only graduate, was assisted by the following persons:

Miss Elizabeth Kelley, Miss Charlotte Marhofer and Mr. Robert Lippitt, piano pupils of Mary Thorpe Graham; Mrs. C. H. Jackson, organ pupil of Flavia Davis Porter, and Miss Ruby Marsh, Miss Clara Lord and Miss Belle Titus, piano pupils of Mathilda Johnson Knudson.

Miss DeArment graduated in voice as a pupil of Mr. Harry Waithe Manville. She rendered her selections in a way that captivated the appreciative audience. The assistance rendered her was of a very high order. The program follows:

COMMENCEMENT CONCERT.

Glee and Mandolin Clubs Will be Assisted by Madam Maconda.

Madam Maconda's appearance with the Glee Club at the commencement concert will be one of the delights of the season. Since her former appearance with the clubs in this city she has had many triumphs both in America and abroad. Her wonderful skill in vocalization has aroused even the most discriminating to declare that, in Maconda, America has produced one of the greatest coloratura sopranos of the day. Madam Maconda has a flexible, silvery voice which, combined with her charming presence and sympathetic temperament, has won for her universal praise and admiration. Press and public alike unite in expressing their appreciation of her wonderful talent.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs need no introduction to a Meadville audience. During the year they have appeared in eighteen public concerts, one of which was before an audience of 1,200 people. The pieces to be rendered at the commencement concert have never been given before a Meadville audience.

In order that all may attend popular prices will be charged, 75 cents, balcony 50 cents. Tickets will be on sale at Easterwood's drug store at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

Comments of the Press.

Mme. Maconda has a rich, resonant voice, and to her honor be it said, she achieved exquisitely the devotional utterances in "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth." Her voice has a delicious lifting quality which easily filled the hall. The Baltimore American.

Her work was exceptionally fine, and she won deserved applause. Mme. Maconda has a flexible voice of excellent quality, and her execution of the florid passages was artistic in every respect.—The Pittsburg Press.

FOOTBALL COACH.

Mr. N. B. Rickey to Coach All Three Teams the Coming Year.

Mr. N. B. Rickey, of Lancaster, O., who is now a student in Ohio Wesleyan University, has been secured to coach Allegheny's athletic teams of 1904-05. Mr. Rickey is a man of great enthusiasm and possesses remarkable talent for discipline and organization. He has had a wide experience in all lines of sport and knows football well. For three years he played on the Ohio Wesleyan University team, gaining the reputation of being the best player in college. After this he accepted professional work. For the past two seasons he has been connected, both as coach and player, with the Shelby Athletic Club, of Shelby, Ohio. The Shelby football team stands at the head of Allegheny Club teams in the state, and its success for the past two years has been due largely to the efficiency of Mr. Rickey. During his career as an athlete, he has had the training of the best coaches and is well fitted for his work. Although he does not expect to confine his methods to any one style of play, in general, he will follow the Dartmouth system.

The Athletic Association is to be congratulated on its choice of a coach, which undoubtedly insures to Allegheny a successful season during 1904 and 1905.

ANNUAL CONTEST BETWEEN LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Allegheny and Philo-Franklin Will Again Face Other in the Arena. On Monday afternoon of commencement week, from four to six o'clock, will occur the annual contest between Allegheny and Philo-Franklin literary societies. This ought to be one of the most interesting events of the week and no student, whether a member of a literary society or not, should miss it. This will be one way in which you can show an interest in literary work. A successful contest at the end of the year ought to be an incentive to better work next year.

This phase of Allegheny's life needs your encouragement; come out to this contest, and let your presence add enthusiasm to the occasion.

In judging the various events, the oration will count 3½ points; the declamation, 1; the debate, 3%; the essay, 2. The contestants are as follows: Allegheny—Orator, Thompson; declaimer, LaBounty; debater, Darrow; essayist, Baker. Philo-Franklin—Orator, Winner of Centenary Contest; declaimer, Dye; essayist, H. M. Scott; debater, Mansell.

Allegheny College Students Have Always Made the Most Money Working for the KEYSTONE VIEW COMPANY. One of their number cleared over $400.00 in four months last year. We have graduates and former students of Allegheny College with us who are at present clearing above all expenses from $150.00 to $200.00 per month. All cannot accomplish the same, but some are and many can do as well as these references. Will you be one of them?

We have recently added a fine line of views from China, Japan, Korea, the beautiful island of Ceylon, the Hawaiian Islands, Porto Rico, the Netherlands, Belgium, Sweden, Colorado and South Africa. Our views of the Paris Exposition, and Boer War will continue to be good sellers, and our new set of views of Switzerland is acknowledged by all as being superior to anything they have seen. We have also added largely to our already fine collection of Childhood and comic views, and our views of Alaska, Palestine, Egypt, Mexico, United States and other parts of the world, continue to hold first place with the public.

Our motto is quality first and quantity afterwards, although we are in position to offer both. We have a large force of photographers, who have won numerous medals, working for us exclusively in new fields of interest, and will always be in position to offer you the LATEST and BEST. Students who value their time should consider our work before making other engagements for their mid-summer vacation.

WE LEAD--LET OTHERS FOLLOW.

We have the only all-finished and perfect scope. We have the only perfectly finished original views. We have the only views that give clear and perfect detail.

We have the only artistic Hand Painted views. We have the only views which focus perfectly. We have the only views on which are printed an historical sketch.

Our Library Sets are acknowledged to be superior to all others, and our salesmen are making phenomenal records in the sale of the same. Our new Aluminum Scope is the best in its line.

A large number of the students of Allegheny College work for us every vacation. Make it a point to see our goods and we will leave the rest to your judgment.

Allegheny Wins Two More Games.

to hold the third strike. With the bases full and two men out the excitement became intense. It was Allegheny's last chance. A good hit meant two runs and the game. The failure to do this meant a victory for the visitors. Comfort had two hits to his credit already. Could he add another? Something must be done to win. The next ball pitched was a high inshoot. The batter turned to avoid it but was not quick enough. The ball struck him on the shoulder entitling him to a base and forcing in the run that tied the score. Selkregg flew out to Ilger.

The excitement during the next two innings was still more intense. So high did it run that the crowd forgot itself and indulged in conduct which in the light of honor and fair play, would be looked upon with more or less suspicion. Not only were the small boys of the town guilty of offense but even some of the students jeered and insulted the visitors in a manner surely unbecoming to their station. When the excitement subsided and the officials succeeded in clearing the field of the crowd the game proceeded.

Neither side scored again until the eleventh inning. Lockwood, the first man up, drove a nice single to right center. Turner attempted a sacrifice and reached first on Ilger's failure to field the ball. Russell was hit by pitched ball, filling the bases. Comfort then finished the game with his single to left field.

Saturday's Game.

The students and townspeople who assembled at Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon to witness the game between Allegheny and the Standard Oil team from Oil City, were somewhat in doubt at the close as to whether they should call the game an eight act farce or a comedy of errors. Some of the play was certainly very farcical and there were errors enough for a dozen games. One of two things is very certain, either the Transit men had an off day or the collegians were in unusually good form.

The game started with a batting streak which resulted in the retirement of the visiting pitcher. A base on balls, two singles, a double and an error by the short stop, netted four runs for Allegheny in the first inning. In the next inning the wildness of the new pitcher resulted in five more runs. Four illegal deliveries and two hits did the work. The next inning was the comedy of errors. Four fielding errors, a battery error, and three hits including a three bagger by Russell, increased the score to 14 to 0.

In the fourth inning the Oil City team scored their only runs. Selkregg let up a little and allowed two men to reach bases. Then the unexpected occurred when Holt dropped a Texas Leaguer back of short where the fielders couldn't touch it. Taylor and Griffith scored on the play. A moment later Heilman, Holt and the ball got mixed up together and before the ball could be recovered Holt had crossed the plate. Three errors together with hits by Russell and Selkregg added three more runs to the score in the fourth inning. In the sixth Turner singled, reached second on a passed ball, stole third, and scored a moment later on the catcher's wild throw to Holt.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Results of Matches Played Off Up to Date.

The tennis tournament which began May 25th still continues. It was hoped that the finals could be played during the week before commencement, but on account of the unfavorable condition of the weather, these games may have to be carried over until the last week of the term. The entries this year have been unusually large, there being twenty-five in the singles and thirteen teams in the doubles. The games played thus far are as follows:

Singles—First Round.

Miller vs. Wilson, 6-4; 7-5.
R. Merrill vs. Shaffer, 6-2; 6-1.
Crawford vs. Freeman, 6-2; 6-2.

UNION MEETING OF Y. M. C. A.

An Interesting Meeting in the College Chapel on Allegheny's Relations to Mission Work.

The Christian Associations held an interesting meeting on Sunday afternoon. One number of the program, which was especially enjoyed, was a Chinese solo by Miss Beebe. Following this the problem of Allegheny's relation to missions was ably discussed. Dr. Smith gave a review of the work which had been done. Miss Thomas explained the purpose and duties of the Allegheny Mission Board. Then Mr. Mansell made an earnest appeal that we have a representative in the foreign field. The meeting closed with a practical talk by Professor Ross on what Allegheny can do for missions.
