

The Waldorf-Astoria
New York.

My dear Miss Tachell,

I cannot leave the magazine. I simply cannot.

I would soon
lose my mind

with unavailing regret.

I can master all other matters.

All other disturbing
matters are closed, closed on both sides. My intent in the magazine purpose, all other interests.

I shall not again
appear in these transactions as I have turned the matter over to the others.

or shall Mando
win by power
I atty. This is final. I am sorry, sorry.

Sincerely yours
S. M. Chure
