Mr. Frederick Harris
347 Madison Avenue
New York City

My dear Mr. Harris:

I have a letter from Mr. Latham, the editorial head of the Macmillan Company, saying that there has been a request from the World's Committee in Geneva for permission to translate my "Boy Scout's Life of Lincoln" for use in Czecho-Slovakia.

Mr. Latham writes me that they are willing to waive in my behalf any rights which their contract gives them in this translation, stipulating only that the translation is to be sold in Czecho-Slovakia and Czecho-Slovakian speaking countries, and is not to be imported into or sold in other lands. I am glad to join my publisher in this waiver.

Very truly yours
