Mr. John L. Little
Rushville, Ill.

My dear Mr. Little:

When I had the pleasure of examining your Lincoln Collection at Rushville, Ill., you may remember I said I would like to send you a copy of the first edition of "He Knew Lincoln".

I thought I would have no difficulty in getting one, but it was not until yesterday that I was able to put my hands upon it, so that it is only going today. I shall be proud to know that it has a place with the originals of the illustrations - illustrations which I have always thoroughly enjoyed. I am sorry the book is not more perfect.

I hope you and your sisters are well. Will you not kindly remember me to them?

Sincerely yours
