New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

"Fifty Foremost Women" pleased me so much that I can't resist the temptation to tell you how well I think you have accomplished an extremely difficult task. The names seem to me very well chosen and the little paragraphs are positively masterly. I have had enough experience doing this sort of thing to know how difficult it is to suggest the real personality when one has space for only a few words and has to include essential facts.

It seems ages since we "won a war together" up at the Womans' Committee and it would be a great pleasure to me if our ways might cross again.

With best regards and good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Helen W. Atwater
