Dear Mrs. Morck:

You will be glad to know that Mr. Sandburg made a profound impression. It was the finest tribute to Lincoln that I have ever heard and everyone was deeply stirred. A half hour before the service began the Chapel was crowded. We accommodated about a hundred people in the Oratory, but even that was soon filled to over-flowing and about a hundred and fifty stood at the rear of the Chapel all through the address.

Under ~~separate~~ cover several copies of the program are being sent to you. We have also sent copies to Miss Tarbell. We are sending copies to Mrs. Brinton, Mrs. Avery and Mr. Wesley Morck.

I want to thank you again for your generous gift. It is a beautiful memorial to your father.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Anne C. Morck
