January 20, 1927.

Mrs. E. R. Lincoln,
Harrisonburg,
Va.

My dear Mrs. Lincoln:

I hope that you have not forgotten me; also that you still keep your interest in the Lincoln Genealogy. You remember, do you not, that when I was in Harrisonburg you were kind enough to obtain from one of the family near Lacey Springs a picture of Abraham Lincoln's second cousin, "David", as I set it down and as it went into "In the Footsteps of Lincoln", a copy of which I think I sent to you?

I have just received a letter from Mrs. Earl, Ottawa, Ohio, telling me that the name was not David for Jacob. She sends with her letter two others from members of the family.

I have no doubt that in some way I have made a mistake but before ordering the name corrected I want to consult you. Was the name David or was it Jacob? I would be greatly obliged if you will write me at your earliest convenience.

Hoping that you are all well and that little Abraham is flourishing, I am,

Sincerely yours,

IMT BWK.

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.