February 21, 1930

My dear Miss Hebard:

Thank you for your kindness in writing me in regard to my story of Lincoln's love for Ann Rutledge. It has always appealed to me as a romance of unusually fine and tender quality - its beauty heightened, no doubt, by the tragedy of its ending. It is good to know that de~~serving~~ people deserving like yourself feel that I have not mutilated the story in trying to tell it.

Very sincerely yours

Dictated but not read

Miss Grace Raymond Hebard
318 South 10th St.
Laramie, Wyoming

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.