My dear Sir:

Some time ago you wrote me a letter, saying that you knew where the original of the Bixby letter was to be found, and asking if I could put you in touch with buyers of Lincoln autographs.

I have been away and ill so that my reply has been long delayed. However, I should very much like to know more about the letter.

What evidence have you of its authenticity? You see, that would have to go with it. Whether or not it has ever been placed before the collectors, and at what price the owner holds it.

If you can give me information on these points, I can put you in touch with one or two of the largest collectors in the country, and should be very glad to do it.

Very truly yours
