March 4, 1933

Dear Mrs. Hoyt:

Please pardon the long delay in replying to your letter of February 3rd. I have been ill and away from New York.

I remember of course with interest the letter of your father's of which you speak. If I could afford it I would be very glad to make your father an offer, but I am not in a situation to do that.

I think, however, if he would write to Dr. Louis A. Warren, % The National Life Insurance Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana, telling him that I had published a copy of the letter and commented upon it and that I had told you that he was interested in original Lincoln letter and thought he might possibly be interested in acquiring it.

I am sorry I can no nothing more for you.

Very sincerely

Mrs. J. H. Hoyt
Caldwell, Kansas

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library