

PELHAM MANOR
NEW YORK

My dear Mr. Tarbell, - Our account in our mission before before new consideration. I know you would not want a lot of letters
that you left you much answer. but I thought of you with much

affection & great sympathy When I learned from Mother of your Mother's death.
When I learned of your exposure in John Hapkins — I now quite bawled over Mrs. Geo. Your Mother, our physical Mother — cannot stand how often you put on yours in America two yrs.
past. & I do hope that bringing you up with a "strong town" - so pleasant. will show the desired effect of easing up your back a bit. You are too necessary to us all, & we can scarcely spare you the time needed for recuperation.

So when you have fully recovered you will be glad I hope. -

And speaking of recuperation. Why not come down a restful day with me out here. When you could be absolutely incop. if you wanted to. We could spend some in the open air if you wanted to.
or work in the sec. & we could have them out from town you might like. & be yourselves if you could stand that. We would select a little our own Roosting, & build you up with some good food & lots of rest.
And then is waiting I should

Will instruct them where you live.

Our plan Mother is to keep an store job in Huntington. It is really astonishing how few of my friends know in the Manor are anxious to the situation. They

placing it back & say
"no. no more designs" — &
What in Heaven's name will make them designs
except a few gaps?
I do hope you are impressing. & when you get ready just have
Mrs. Cance telephone me & you will be home

them welcome. —

Anyway if you can't come I'm. will go back to Washington right off.

With sincere sympathy before the new Administration as always.

Affectionately Yours

Lawrence A. Reed.
