

Newark. Feb. 11, 1901

Dear N:-

Miss Garbelle's letter followed me here. I suppose you have answered it, but if not I am in no sort of hurry about the return of the clippings which are of much more use in her hands than mine.

I am sorry I can't get up your way this time. I have been exceedingly busy and not very strong.

Yours.

D.O.R.