

March 2, 1932

Dear Mr. Steiner:

I have your letter of February 21st taking exception to my statement that Lincoln prayed.

I have only the authority of his own words for this statement. I think if you will read carefully his letters, messages and speeches made during the Civil War you will find repeated evidence that he was what we call, a praying man.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Franklin Steiner
635 N. Clark Street
Chicago, Illinois