1300 FLETCHER TRUST BUILDING
INDIANAPOLIS

Sept 14, 1920.

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I have to thank you for many pleasant memories of our two hours' talk about Lincoln and now for your letter. I hope you will keep after Mr Fortune until he does his duty about the Lincoln material he has. I shall remind him when the opportunity arises. In the Cadmus Book Shop, West 34th near 8th St., I saw Mr De la Hunt's history of Perry County Indiana with an interesting chapter about Lincoln in Indiana that you should see.

Do you know "Footprints of Abraham Lincoln" by J. T. Hodson, D.D., L.L.B., published 1909
by The Otterbein Press of Dayton O.
It has no great value but it covers the Indiana period to some extent with original matter.

I enclose my Am. Bar Association address which contains the result of some rather thorough research in the circuits where Lincoln practiced law.

Sincerely yours,
Charles W. Moores

Enc. for the cause of a country lawyer,
Abraham Lincoln.
