

FINAL STAGE OF PLANS REACHED

Quota of $250,000 for Meadville Expected to Be Soon Completed

Money Used for Dorms, Scholarships, Improvements, Recreational Facilities

Meadville and Crawford county, this week, are launching into the final stage of an intensive financial program for the 125th anniversary fund of Allegheny college.

This local drive attempting to reach a $250,000 quota is the first of a nationwide anniversary fund movement. District leaders met last week for the opening campaign dinner at Cochran hall. Reports from Dr. J. Wesley Miller, general supervision counselor-director of institutional, financing indicate that Meadville has passed the half-way mark today. A report luncheon last Friday marked the subscription totals slightly above $131,000.

By tomorrow night the locals hope to report the full quota amount of this district. Individual canvassing has been the main concern in building for Allegheny the first fund of this kind since 1920.

The board of trustees cooperating with Dr. J. Wesley Miller have set the nation's goal at $900,000. Meadville's contribution will amount to 27 per cent of this total figure. Separate districts are being sectioned through alumni groups throughout the country.

CHAPEL SEATING CHANGES MADE

New chapel regulations and requirements for the coming year were announced at last Wednesday's chapel by President Tolley.

The number of cuts from chapel allowed each student during the semester will probably be determined by classification. The penalties for an excess of cuts have not yet been determined.

The checking of students is to be done through numbered cards which are signed by the students and handed in when leaving chapel.

There are to be no definite seating arrangements except for the freshman class which has been assigned to the first five rows of seats, and to as many more rows on the right side as are needed.

Further announcements concerning the new requirements will be made later.

PHILO-FRANKLIN UNION PLANS ACTIVE YEAR

SPEAKING ACTIVITIES SCHEDULED AT MONDAY MEETING

Philo-Franklin Union met Monday night to consider plans for campus speaking activities for the ensuing year. This year is a banner year in the annals of the Union. for just 100 years ago, Philo-Franklin was founded, originally serving as a literary society. Since then, the Union has grown both in size and influence, until it now controls both forensic and extra-curricular engagements.

Coinciding with the 125th anniversary of the founding of the college, the Union has planned a number of major events for the coming year.

Sponsor Extemporaneous Contest.
Included in the program will be the annual men's extemporaneous speaking contest, to be held in chapel on October 6th. As usual, contestants representing each fraternity will be

AIR TRAINING SPONSORED BY GOVERNMENT

Actual Flight Instruction Given at Port Meadville; Open to Upperclassmen

Applications are now being received for Allegheny college's air training course sponsored by the United States government.

Frederick F. Seely, of the faculty committee in charge of the course, said yesterday that he has received application forms from the Civil Aeronautics authority. Although the number of students to be included in the course is not known, more definite information is expected to be received from the government within a few days.

Allegheny was one of three Pennsylvania colleges approved by the government to offer air training courses. Mr. Seely said Friday that a representative of the Civil Aeronautics authority is expected to arrive in Meadville shortly to confer with college authorities and operators of Port Meadville where actual flying activities of the course will be centered.

Considerable interest has already been shown evidenced among students. Now that applications are actually being taken, this interest is expected to increase, Mr. Seely stated. Although no definite date has been set, it is believed that the instruction period will begin early in October.

With the exception of freshmen, all

FRESHMAN WEEK GREAT SUCCESS

PHYSICAL EXAM PLAN ALTERED BY COLLEGE

Hospitalization Plan More Rigid; Examinations Three Times in College Career

The Medical Aid facilities for the students of Allegheny College have been altered somewhat from previous arrangements it was reported by Dr. Clifford Skinner, college physician.

This year the freshmen were rigidly examined by nine doctors including a dentist and Dr. Skinner. This physical checkup was equivalent to a regular insurance examination, more complete than many policy examinations. In addition to this service, a tuberculosis test was also administered.

Varying from previous years upper classmen were not examined at the beginning of the year. Under the new system, the Sophomores and Seniors will undergo the same physical tests after Easter, thus eliminating the difficulties with regards to attendance

Activities Planned to Acquaint Freshmen to Customs and Traditions

Cwens in Charge of the Freshman Women; House Meetings and Get-togethers

Freshman week brought a continuous series of events to the Allegheny campus as over 240 freshmen became acquainted with the customs and traditions of the college.

Dean Laila Skinner, commenting on this year's freshman week, stated that it was one of the best that she had ever seen. She mentioned particularly the dinner for new students given at Hulings hall, which was followed by President William P. Tolley's address.

The activities began on Wednesday, September 13, and continued until Monday. In charge of the freshman women were the Cwens. Most of the time was taken up by the inventory examinations held in the Reis library and in Alden.

One evening was given over to house meetings and get-togethers in the women's dormitories, where representatives from Associated women students presented student activities.

On Friday afternoon the students attended conferences with their advisers to arrange courses. That evening a chapel program was held at the Ford memorial chapel, where Registrar C. F. Ross, Professor Hurst R.

WOMEN'S SENATE MEETING HELD

Louise Hazlett, Barbara Flick and Patricia Van Ostrand, all of '41, were the nominees selected to fill the office of treasurer vacated by Peggy Reilley, ex-'41. Voting will take place today.

Proctors selected by the senate are Dorothy Henry, '41, Ruth Mary Kroft, '41, Betty Chapelle, '42, Jean Megahan, '41, Virginia Viets, '42, Nancy Martin, '42, Nell Hervey, '42, Joyce Shafmeister, '42, Jean Sahli, '42, Charlotte Zema, '42, Ruth Morton, '42, and Betty Bartlett, '43.

At freshmen dormitory meetings held last week, house representatives were selected. Carolyn Sigrist was chosen at Hammett House, Peggy Williams and Jean Wolgemuth at Tarbell house, and Nancy Colwell at Beebe house.

The First Week's Show is Over As Dawn Comes for Freshmen

And now, my little Freshmen, now that the first week of school is ancient history, you will really get to know those awe-inspiring upperclassmen as they actually are—not as those paragons of smoothness, neatness, and politeness, just oozing with flattery, subtle and otherwise, but just as they bum around the campus for eight and three-quarter months of the academic year.

You will not see handsome gentlemen, groomed to the nth degree, wandering about, wearing an Ipana grin perpetually frozen to their faces, ready to come to the aid of any little inexperienced Freshman lad, with a willing heart and a helping hand. Nor will you see these benevolent benefactors to those first year students, escorting them to the movies or to a football game, just to provide an evening of entertainment for those lonely little souls.

Never more will a considerate upperclassman say to one of those lonely beings, as he stands on the threshold of the chapel entrance. "Oh, come on over and rest up before lunch. The boys will be glad to meet you and talk to you." Never again will one of those "wonderful ones" bother his brain about a cute date for the little Freshman.

And do not believe that those great heroes will go on handing out cigarettes and such. Oh no, those days are gone forever.

In reference to the women, the situation is just a bit altered; all this amazing attention is concentrated, in this case upon the Sophomores. But don't worry, little Freshman gals; your turn will come next year. (Incidentally, rumor has it that in revolt against all the furor of the past week, the Freshmen women have organized a little group of their own known as "Flappa Flappa Pajama". Nice going, Kidlets.) However, just as in the case of our masculine population, all the feminine quality of Allegheny College has been exerting every ounce of its magnetic personality, in order to entice the Sophomore women to their attractions.

So now, little Freshmen, do not be disillusioned when you see, to your horror and amazement, various of these upperclass gods, running around, sans coat, sans tie, attired merely in slacks and sweatshirt and moccasins. You will see girls in sweaters and skirts, anklets and saddle shoes. But do not become alarmed; for as you increase in wisdom and age, all will become clear and with enlightenment will come complete understanding. Just remember that this is still the same institution and that we are all sisters (and brothers, too) under the skin.

A.C.C. SERVICE

If summer weather prevails Sunday A.C.C. will sponsor a short vesper service in the Upper Ravine at 4:45.

Mr. Edward Johe will be at the Hammond organ and President Bob Appleyard will discuss briefly, "A Way of Life."

Everyone will be welcomed to the first outdoor vesper service ever to be held here. Plans are being completed for similar programs in the near future.

MUSIC HOUR

Every Monday evening from seven to eight o'clock Mr. Benjamin will have a listening hour in the oratory.

It's Just a Case of Love at First Sight When They Meet Allie

It's funny how one little trait can win you over to something just like that! Of course that is a rather common occurrence. Then too there is love at first sight. That's the way between Allegheny (my man of the hour) and me. How could I explain it to you?

First I believe I should mention the fact that Allegheny College, I usually call him my Allie, is easy to take. The out-of-door type, well built and nice features. Allie has a voice that fairly puts you into Seventh Heaven. When those soft, euphonious tones slip from his mouth your heart does an adagio dance. Incidentally you can give Allie anything from a honest-to-goodness Strauss Waltz right on down through the Jumpin' Joe and even a tango and he's still Fred Astaire to me. Allie really has a never-fail line but I think he's pretty sincere and straight. You've just got to learn to trust people or sometimes you find that you've made a fool out of yourself by being a doubting thomas.

Don't get the wrong impression. Allie's not dumb. He's really super-super when it comes to intellectual ability. Knows all about math, science, the classics and that sort of thing. Sometimes when we're talking I just sit back in open-mouthed amazement and try to see how much I can let sink into my cerebellum. I even make mental lists of words like ochlocracy and promulgate and from then on sit on pins and needles till I see Webster's old faithful. You just have to expect things like that to happen when you associate with cultured people.

The nice part of it is that we like the same things. Long walks in the spicy damp woods, Robert Browning, dogs, ice cream, green sweaters, Chippendale tables, star gazing and looking up through tree branches. There's no use rambling on forever. It just happened that way.

The best way to describe Allie is to say he's smooth. And he does the sweetest things. For instance he comes serenading you with fraternity brothers at night before the second scene of your dreams begins. If you can think of anything nicer than a harmonious version of "Tell Me Why" climbing up to your room on a ladder of moonbeams let me know.

I haven't known Allie very long but, oh boy! It looks like a rosy future, a grand romance and what have you. This is one time when little Suzy is putting all her eggs in one basket. Things are looking up in this love story and I think I'll put my heart on an open door policy.

If I were Shelley I would write an ode. If I were Little Pons I'd sing a

To the class of 1943 belongs the distinction of being the largest freshman class in Allegheny's history. For two weeks you have been lionized, and lauded; you have been advised and cautioned, coddled and pampered. And it is not ours to protest against this; but we do feel that you are now sufficiently orientated to acclimate yourself to college routine.

Naturally we do not expect that you will become immediately independent of faculty or student counsel, but it is our hope that you will become immediately aware of your increasing responsibility to your family and to yourselves. Sometimes the sudden release from home ties is apt to bring about an almost unbelievable change in the student's outlook upon life. We urge you to remember that first impressions mean as much in the collegiate world as do they anywhere; your four years in college can be as successful or as fruitless as you choose to make them.

Then, too, while at college, you may forget that events of great significance are taking place in the outside world. In your enthusiasm for the new and undergraduate life, you may easily neglect to correlate the knowledge you are gaining with the practical art of living anywhere but on a college campus.

It is our sincere hope that this, the class entering in Allegheny's 125th anniversary year will completely embody the spirit and fervor of all true Alleghenians.

The Allegheny Building Fund Campaign, being carried on in conjunction with Allegheny's anniversary year, deserves the whole hearted support of every Alleghenian, alumnus, or undergraduate. Up to now, the campaign's concentration has been largely on alumni subscribers, but it is our belief that those students who are soon to take their places in alumni ranks should be even more vitally concerned with the drive.

The plan for the fund, as it now stands will have far-reaching effects upon Allegheny's future. Not only will the fund liquidate deficits, but it will provide for additional recreational facilities, improvement of the campus, a new dormitory, and increased endowment and aid for needy students.

This is the first appeal to Allegheny's entire constituency in twenty years. If our college is to remain in the front ranks of American colleges, she must have physical equipment to match the intellectual opportunities offered here.

It is our belief that the drive to develop Allegheny should be extended to include undergraduate contributors, so that in the years to come, they could feel that they had had some part, however small, in the growth of their alma mater.

PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

Americans have been engrossed during the peace period since the World War in vividly analyzing its horrors, avidly discussing its futility, and confidently assuring themselves such folly shall never again be repeated.

Today we stand on the brink of our entrance into another war. Still vaguely recalling the horrors of the last war, we threaten our non-participation in the present war by throwing our economic support to the side of the allies. Still hazily remembering the futility of the last war, we assert the necessity for another. Still considering our former folly we are not too certain that the present situation does not call for similar action.

Hence before we are too strongly assailed by organized propaganda, harangued by glib orators, thrilled by material music, and swayed by war maddened throngs, we had best pause to:

Recall, as Congressman Mr. Kitchin's dictum: "It takes neither moral nor physical courage to declare war for others to fight."

Remember, as young men, that just as each death in the last war was in vain, so shall be each casualty in the threatening war.

Realize, as a nation, that if we cannot attain economic security in time of peace we need not anticipate attaining idealistic goals in the madness of war.

Reiterate, as individuals, that our real reason for participation in this war, as in the last, would be economic.

Perhaps, then, we will join with Einstein declaring that: "War is low and despicable, and I had rather be smitten to shreds than participate in such doings!"

Philo-Franklin Plans Active Year

given half an hour to prepare a speech on an assigned topic. A similar contest for the women will be held on October 20th.

Round Table Planned.

James N. Gettemy, president of the Union, announced that it would sponsor a round table discussion of the European situation on Wednesday, October 18th. Several faculty members and undergraduates who have recently returned from abroad will give their interpretation of the effects of the war in Europe, after which the meeting will be thrown open to the audience for questions.

In November, a debate between men and women students on some pertinent topic will hold the spotlight. Selection of the various representatives is to be made by the Associated Women Students and the Men's Undergraduate Council. The always popular Wakefield Oration Contest, an annual event, will form an important part of the program for December.

Speaker Scheduled.

A committee appointed Monday night is now investigating the possibility of securing the services of an international commentator for a speaking engagement sometime in February. A novel debate on a popular subject is being planned for March. With debaters representing the prosecution and the defense, witnesses will be called to testify, a student judge will preside, and a verdict will be rendered by a jury drawn from the audience.

The yearly Philo-Franklin speaking contest in May will wind up the season for the organization, although it is expected that the members will take an active part in the mock political convention to be held on the campus later in the spring.

Full Program Arranged.

Prof. Hurst R. Anderson, in announcing the schedule, laid special emphasis on the fact that the major part of the Union's efforts is to be directed this year toward participation by the student body in the various speaking activities. The usual number of intercollegiate debates, and Allegheny Speaker's Bureau engagements will take place, however, making this an exceptionally full year for Philo-Franklin Union.

Anniversary Plans Nearing Final Stage

Their drives will continue through the 1940 year. Campaign objectives reveal that this money will be used for the most urgent needs of the college. One hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars will go for bonded indebtedness; $425,000 will be used for dormitory purposes; $250,000 for additional endowment and scholarships; and $50,000 for campus improvements and added recreational facilities.

Work of strengthening the financial foundations may not be accomplished in one year. It was stated. Because of this, fund pledges will be on a five-year basis. All gifts will be exempt from gift taxes and may be deducted from the income in filing federal income tax returns.

In connection with this campaign fund and the pageantry of the 125th anniversary, Allegheny has prepared a booklet, "Not Built for a Day," setting forth the progress of the school. The final paragraph looks forward with "Gifts made here are enduring gifts. They build a structure that promises to outlast all else we do. For Allegheny was built . . . not for a day . . . but for the ages."

BIT BY BIT

FROSH BITS

W. W. "Kinkate" Smith plans to have all the girls at his feet in a week. The boys say he's o.k. "He has eight suits."

Vicky "Rug Cutter" McVicar got to the finals in a jitterbug contest in Pgh. Why didn't she jump and jive with the Phi Deltis Saturday. Was it "Dingle"?

Have you noticed how those smooth freshman fellas get around?—especially Wally Hansen, that big construction. He doesn't miss much.

We hear there are some good singers in the freshman class. They all must have cut chapel last Friday.

Herbie "Heinie-cut" Williams has been rushing Nancy Zuber, who is the very picture of Garbo. We're waiting to hear her accent.

Cafisch boasts a new set of rhythm boys this year. Prominent triple-tonguing trumpeteer is Walt Gable.

CUFF BITS

Pennies, pennies—who got the pennies at the all-college? Detwiler swears it was for the Detwiler-Hoover Milk Fund.

131 Brunettes at 3c
11 Reds at 2c
38 Blondes at 1c

Total—$4.53. (That's a lot of milk!)
The "Patent Leather Kid" (Dick Lewellyn to youse guys) was seen beating it out with Elly Young at the all-college. Benjie had to look twice.

TID BITS

Jean Feierabend was "all wrapped up" in Frank Ford (her Frankiepuss) last Sunday.

It was a bit of a mix-up last Friday night when Ginny Kiser and Wayne Knight "happened to meet" Louise Hazlett and Bill Mays outside Hoolings. Their blushing faces cast a glow that threatened to turn on the sprinkler system in the lean-to.

The height of nonchalance. Pewee (on date) was taking forty winks. When someone woke her all she had to say was "I need another cover." Tish, tish!

Ginny McEwen may be able to fool some of the people all of the time, but she didn't fool Bit a bit when she flashed Jack Barry's pin. She even said she knew she was going to get it all the time.

Sophomore girls were a bit worried over the shortage of white dresses lately—but not for long. Many of the girls had to make "pullenty quick" changes.

We hear George Phi Gam and Cubby Miller tangled with a wood pussy the other night. Poor Cubby had to spoil his record of only two baths a year. "Two bad."

Have you seen Willard Detwiler's swith hair-do? He says he was sleeping on the lawn one day while his brother was taking the lawn mower for a stroll. Result: new nickname—Moe. Moe fun! (Ouch! We're sorry).
A bit of a slam,
A bit of a pun;
But don't get mad
It's all in fun.

29 VARSITY
MEN REPORT TO LAWRENCE

Gridders Rush Through Practice for Lid-Lifter
With Haverford, Oct. 7

After completing their first week of practice, the potentialities of the Allegheny football squad are yet questionable. Only fundamentals and strategy are being stressed with no real pressure being applied, because players are not yet in shape and are very susceptible to injuries. Coach Lawrence will make every effort this year to prevent those injuries which were such a definite handicap to him last year.

This year's team faces a tough schedule—first traveling to Philadelphia to try to revenge last year's defeat by Haverford. The following Saturday they will meet a strong Oberlin team in the Homecoming Day tilt. This is a very tough assignment because thirteen members and eleven lettermen of last year's have graduated. These included five regular linemen and two regular backfield men.

This year's team will be built around its seven returning lettermen; Seniors Barrett, Scarpitti, Cook, and Lemme, and Juniors Burkett, Saylor, and Hartwell. Other upper level members of the squad are Seniors Hays and Davies and Juniors Burkett, Saylor, Hartwell, Dotterer, and Hickernell.

Several good prospects have been recruited from last year's Freshman team. Long, a center, is being switched to guard in order to strengthen the weak spot in the line left by graduation. McKnight, Peiffer, and Doolittle have returned to the backfield,

OUTERS JOURNEY TO LAKE PLACID

The Adirondack mountains near Lake Placid were the scene of the Allegheny Outing club's summer trip, which took place from September 1 to September 9. The trip was made in connection with Intercollegiate Outing club week, and coincided partly with it.

From their lean-to base on Mount Marcy seven members of the Allegheny Outing club climbed mountains, including Mount Marcy and Mount MacIntyre, and explored the nearby country. The Allegheny members also met with some sixty other members of the Intercollegiate Outing Union for a get-together and songfest.

Jean Travis, '42, Jean Steigerwald, ex-'41, Walter Maloney, '40, Bruce Campbell, '42, John Krimmel, '40, Al Colley, '41, and Harold Calbert, '39, were the Outing Club members who went on the trip, according to Walter Maloney, '40, Senior member of the club board.

as well as Schuster, former guard, who is being groomed as a back.

New Junior men who have joined the squad for the first time are Amidon, a rugged ineman, and Hoover, a big guard. Hickernell, a senior playing his first varsity ball, will, because of his weight and speed be a welcome addition to the line.

Announcement of a tentative starting lineup for the Haverford game would be useless, because the personnel of the first team changes daily.

These twenty-nine varsity players will be handled by Russell Trump, who has been appointed varsity manager by Coach Lawrence.

All Independents eligible to play intramural football should sign their names on the bulletin either in Cochran Hall, Bentley Hall, or Jim's.

Litten-To-Me
By HELEN LITTEN

After a strenuous summer of acquiring a good coat of tan and tuning up long and unused muscles, here we are again ready for the new and up-and-at-em sports program. The first quarter sports will be riding, tennis, archery, swimming and hockey, providing enough interest is shown in this last sport. It has been several years since hockey has been offered at Allegheny so let's take advantage of this new opportunity and get behind it with vim and vigor.

The tennis tournament, under the supervision of Ruth Kroft, is to get under way on Wednesday of this week. Each match must be played off within two days of the time scheduled. If it has not been completed by that time one or the other must default. In case of rain arrangements must be made with Ruth Kroft for a second date.

Betty Buchanan will have charge of the archery tournament which is also to start on Wednesday of this week.

OUTING CLUB
The first meeting of the Executive board of the Outing Club was held Sunday night at which time some new policies were advocated for a more efficient functioning of the club for the year. These will be put into effect immediately and are to be carefully observed by all members of the club.

The station wagon is to be under the supervision of Miss Boyd. Al Colie, chairman of the transportation committee, is to drive the wagon except in special instances when others may be designated.

Any one signing out for a week-end must attend that outing unless his or her name is removed from the list before Friday noon, at which time preparations for procuring the food are made. Any one whose name is still on the list when it is removed Friday noon is expected to pay whether attending the outing or not. If an emergency arises special arrangements may be made with Alice Bryant.

Order blanks are to be obtained from Miss Boyd for ANY purchases large or small for the club.

All dues must be paid by October 31. If this rule is not complied with that person is ineligible for any activities during that semester whether the dues are paid after that date or not.

Phi Psis, B.K.'s Clash
Today Behind Arter
In Opening Battle

The Allegheny intramural touch football competition will begin this afternoon when the Phi Psi and the B. K.'s tangle at 5 o'clock behind Arter hall.

The schedule will be played in a round-robin fashion with each team in the league, which includes seven fraternities and the independents, playing each other team once.

First round games following the Phi Psi-B. K. fracas on Wednesday will be the Chi Rhos versus the Phi Gams on Thursday, the Phi Deltas versus the Deltas on Friday, and the Independents versus the Sigs on Monday. All the games will be played at 5 o'clock behind Arter hall.

The Phi Deltas are already a well established favorite to repeat because most of their championship team of last year are back in school. Predictions are difficult to make, however, because of the unknown athletic powers of the various freshmen pledge classes.

Candidates are ineligible for competition for varsity and freshman football. Those in varsity soccer may play only if they receive written permission from their coach.

The first meeting of this year will be held in Carnegie hall on Wednesday night at 8:15.

This year ten cents will be taken from each person for transportation as that person enters the station wagon.

The first Heeler's meeting will be held on October 3. Further announcement about the Heeler's organization will be made in Chapel this Friday.

Although this seems like a big order to fill let's get behind all these activities and really set them whizzing for a grand year of pep and fun.

There will be a picnic of all town girls at Bousson next Thursday.

A listening hour will be held every Wednesday evening from 8:15 to 9:15 in the oratory.

BOOTERS POINT FOR OPENER WITH
SLIPPERY ROCK

Allegheny's soccer team under Coach H. P. Way has been practicing for over a week in preparation for their first game with Slippery Rock on October 6.

Returning lettermen Captain Hart, Gratz, Appleyard, Baldwin, George, and Caputo will form the nucleus of Coach Way's '39 combination. With only six men returning from a team which could do no better than win one game, tie two, and lose three, the team's prospects for the season cannot be called bright.

Coach Way must lean heavily on the seventeen sophomore members of the squad to fill the shoes of the graduated lettermen. Ritenour, Graft, Gatrall, Cares, Johnston, Jones, and White. Their places will be filled by such numeral men as Bicking, Doncaster, Welday, Aiken, Miller, and Graft.

Following the opening game in Slippery Rock, October 6 will come battle with Carnegie Tech at Meadville October 13, Buffalo State Teachers at Meadville October 17, University of Rochester at Rochester, October 20, Grove City at Grove City October 27, and Oberlin at Meadville November 3.

47 FOOTBALLERS
ON FROSH SQUAD

Forty-seven uniforms, a record breaking number, were issued to a husky looking flock of freshmen as daily workouts began last Friday.

Although many of the Freshmen are green and inexperienced, there are many who have won spots on high-class high school teams and one who has even gained All-State recognition.

Coach Lawrence will train the Frosh through the first weeks on fundamentals, body co-ordination and prevention of injuries. If they come around into condition as well as Coach Lawrence hopes, they will scrimmage with the varsity in the latter part of the season. The Frosh face an indefinite schedule of two or possibly three games.

While harvest moon shines on high, the Greek lettermen and women sit back and survey their harvest now that rush week is over. Quiet and peace once more settles over Allegheny.

Kappa Alpha Theta.

Soft Hawaiian music mingled with tall waving palms and gave an air of contentment to the Theta rush party on Tuesday afternoon, September 19. A passport sketch, and a tour to Theta dreamland entertained the rushees.

Kappa Alpha Theta announces the following marriages:

Vivian Johnson, ex-'40, to William McQuown, ex-'38, in Pittsburgh on September 2.

Barbara Johnston, ex-'40, to William Zerbach in Cleveland September 15.

Ruth Pratt, '39, to Ross Beller, '37, on September 15th in Pittsburgh.

Kappa Alpha Theta announces the engagement of Eleanor Young, ex-'41, to Charles Fahr of Meadville. A February wedding is planned after which the couple will reside in Meadville.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Summer vacations were brought back to mind at the Kappa Kappa Gamma party on Tuesday night, September 19. Carrying out the hotel theme Mary Lou Williams, '40, acted as hostess. Elinor Kistler, '40, and Alice Eicher, '40, were pages and Ann Albright, '41, portrayed the well known cigarette girl. A floor show was also enjoyed by the guests.

Mary Lou Allen, ex-'41, was the week-end guest of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge banquet was last Friday night at Venango Inn.

Alpha Chi Omega.

Dreams galore and soft cushions made a dreamland of the Alpha Chi Omega rooms for the rush party last Wednesday afternoon. A dream was brought to life thru the medium of a skit.

The pledge banquet was held at Venango Inn on Thursday, Sept. 21.

Alpha Chi Omega announces the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin. Mrs. Baldwin is the former Betty Stewart, ex-'40.

Alpha Gamma Delta.

The air of old Mexico was portrayed at the Alpha Gamma Delta party Monday night, Sept. 18. A pantomime of Ferdinand The Bull furnished the entertainment.

Theta Upsilon.

A bar with non-alcoholic drinks and Mary Graft, '40, acting bartender, gave atmosphere to the Theta Upsilon Pledge Party. A fashion show with the latest in campus styles was presented.

The pledge banquet was held at the Riverside Hotel Friday evening, September 22.

Alpha Xi Delta.

Upon the bounding main the Alpha Xi Delta sailors held their rushing party. Singing and a pantomime of the Light House keeper's daughter were given to entertain the sea farers. Helen Hilker, '41, gave a reading.

Alpha Xi Delta announces the marriage of Henalda Ann Dunning to Robert J. Byers on Aug. 26 in Montreal.

Alpha Xi Delta announces the birth of a daughter, Eliz. Ann. to Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Callahan, and a daughter, Patricia Jean, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kelley. Mrs. Kelley is the former Mildred Brooks, '32.

Miss Elizabeth R. Johnson, a member of the library staff last year, was married on August 19th at Cherry Valley, New York, to Mr. Carl de Zeeuw of East Lansing, Michigan. Mr. de Zeeuw is on the teaching staff of the School of Forestry at Syracuse University. Mr. and Mrs. de Zeeuw are residing at 1033 Lancaster Ave., in Syracuse, New York.

Miss Alice Margaret McNally, assistant in the cataloging department in the library from 1937 till 1939, was married on June 12th to Dr. Harold State, a member of the staff of the Chemistry department. Dr. and Mrs. State are living at 257 Woodland Place, Meadville, Pa.

Miss Emaruth Burkhardt, '39, of Connellsville, Pa., and Mr. Thomas R. Knorr, '32, of Meadville, were united in marriage on the 29th of August at Trinity Lutheran Church, Meadville, Pa. Mr. Paul Cares acted as best man. The maid of honor was Doris L. Burkhardt with Elizabeth Reynolds, Betty Buttermore, '40, and Jean Heeter, '41, as bridesmaids. Ushers were Robert Burkhardt and Harry Dennison, '32.

Miss Evelyn M. Watson, '09, has contributed poems included in anthologies which Henry Harrison, New York Poetry publisher is issuing.

New Rooms Soon to be Completed in Library

Work will start shortly on the furnishing of the Lincoln Room for which a special gift has been received from Mrs. A. C. Morck of Oil City, Pennsylvania, a friend of Miss Ida M. Tarbell. The room is to be used to exhibit the books given to Allegheny by Miss Tarbell.

The exhibit in the library, OF TIME-LY INTEREST, has attracted quite a bit of attention. It is composed entirely of various numbers of Time, centered about a letter dated September 9, 1939, explaining why the war news which Time reports has such significance for its readers. The purpose of Time is to make the war news make sense for the subscribers and to supplement the superb hour-by-hour coverage of your daily newspaper with a unique service you could find nowhere else.

Miss Nancy Sleeth, '36, attended the School of Library Science of Syracuse University for the summer session. She returned on the first of September to her work in the Reis Library.

which arises during the "rushing" period. Juniors who are not planning to return for the last year will also be checked at that time.

By this plan, students will be examined at the beginning, middle and end of their college career.

Medical attention in the college is provided by Dr. Skinner in the gym and Miss Elizabeth Swartz, a registered nurse, whose infirmary is on the second floor of Hulings hall. Services are rendered on the Health fee only during their respective office hours.

The hospitalization plan includes two weeks in a semi-private room in either Meadville hospital. The service received covers operating room fee, ordinary drugs, dressings, casts and certain x-ray and laboratory services. Doctors' services and any extra attentions are paid for by the patient.

students of Allegheny college are eligible to fill out application forms. The government requires applicants to be between 18 and 25 years of age. The initial physical examination is informal but the applicants, if accepted, will then have to pass a rigid physical examination, Mr. Seely stated.

The $40 fee will cover the medical examination and insurance, but the actual cost of flight instruction is to be borne entirely by the government. "This means that successful applicants will be able to secure a private pilot's license for $40, a very low fee," Mr. Seely pointed out.
