Miss Ida M. Tarbell

New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell,

I possess some information which I think would be of great interest to you as well as to our great nation. A few weeks ago I consulted a prominent Minnesota attorney whom I have known for many years and he advised me to write you to make arrangements to see you in regard to the matter. Before making an effort to go to New York, which would be rather difficult for a busy mother, I concluded to ask you if you are planning a trip in a westerly direction, say to Chicago, the twin cities, or the far West, this spring or summer, and if so, it may be I could meet you somewhere for a conference. I refer you to this attorney, Mr. W. F. Donohue, who was very much astonished upon hearing my story and seeing my proofs of same. His address is 819-5th Ave So, St. Cloud, Minn. I also refer you to Dr. C. B. Lewis, a brother to Sinclair's Lewis, the author, and our family physician, and Mr. Frank Fandel, prominent merchant, both of St. Cloud where I was raised. May I hear from you? Thank you. Very sincerely
Mrs. Joe Kinkler Jr
