

Sept. 29, 1924

Mr. Jacob L. Hasbrouck,
The Daily Pantagraph,
Bloomington, Ill.

My dear Mr. Hasbrouck:

Thank you for the clippings from
The Daily Pantagraph describing the incident of the 32 yoke of oxen used at the Bloomington Lincoln rally in 1860. I never had heard of it before.

If I should ever want to use the material these clippings give me all the information that I care for, so it would not be necessary to avail myself of your kind offer to give me further details.

Very truly yours,