Miss Louise Elliott,
State Normal School,
Harrisonburg, Va.

My dear Miss Elliott:

I am anxious to find out how you are getting along with your researches in Harrisonburg for Lincoln items. I am obliged to have very soon whatever you find there. That is, the items will be too late if sent to me after the first of the year.

In all probability, John Lincoln and at least his son Jacob were slave holders. Have you found any evidence of this? I think that Mr. John L. Harris can help you on this point. I saw him when I was in Harrisonburg and he said that he would be very glad to give you any assistance that he could.

Will you kindly let me know at once how you are getting along.

Sincerely yours,
