February 3, 1928

Dear Mr. Wallace:

I think you are right in your decision that the piece on "Amusements of Fifty Years Ago" was not for the Reader's Digest. As a matter of fact as it stands I think it is not for anybody.

As soon as I am a little freer I will take up your suggestion "The Poor We Have With Us Always" and send you an outline of what I have in mind.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. DeWitt Wallace
Pleasantville, New York

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library