Gentlemen — I am pleased to notice that we are promised in the American Magazine an article by Miss Ida M. Tarbell on the subject The Homeless Daughter.

All of Miss Tarbells articles are most valuable, but this is a subject in which I am especially interested as I belong to the class of homeless daughters.

I am hoping that this article may appear soon — and that I shall find some crumbs of comfort, advice, or suggestion, in which I, with many others, stand greatly in need.

Hoping I have not taken too great freedom in writing, thus,
I am yours very Sincerely
Miss Amy Brown
