Dear Julian Street:

Thank you for the N B C booklet showing so admirably the work of the Broadcasting Company in raising the musical standards of the country. I have watched the effort with deep satisfaction. Certainly a notable contribution to the general culture of America has been made in the last few years.

You ask if I am still tied up as when we last talked. Yes, I am afraid I am. I seem to have six or eight months of rather strenuous work ahead of me. ThenI am going to take a little rest, at least I hope so. After that if you are still interested I may be free to consider a proposition, though I still feel you ought to have some one more on the inside than I have ever been to do the work.

At all events I am glad that you still feel I will "do." I shall be glad always to receive any information concerning the N B C that you care to pass on to me.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Julian Street, Jr.
