Dear Miss Tarbell

It was just grand
of you to autograph my book for me. It has doubled its value to me now. Thank you so much for your kindness and the good wishes.

I am enclosing
five cents in stamps
to cover the return postage. Will you accept this little harkie as a slight
token of my appreciation?

I haven't, as yet,
had time to read

your book, so mother and I both have that pleasure to look forward to.

With sincere good wishes,
Suzanne Maury
