Dear friends of the Pen and Brush—

How I wish I might be with you on the evening of February 5, with you to assure Miss Tarbell how much I have appreciated her wonderful service to the Club in her twenty years' presidency. I feel that we have been unusually fortunate in having her with us and I for one, am deeply grateful for the privilege of knowing her. But I can't come.

With best wishes for a very happy occasion, as I know Monday evening will be, I am, with best wishes to all

A loyal, tho' powerless destiny

member Alice Lawton.
