All the faculty, students, and friends of Allegheny College are invited by the Allegheny Playshop to attend a Christmas Miracle Play, "The Star," to be given on Sunday evening, December 13th, at 7:30 o'clock in the Allegheny Playshop, Arter Hall. There will be no admission charge for this play but everyone is requested to procure reserved seat tickets. These tickets will be available at the box office in the lobby of the theater from two to five o'clock on Thursday and Friday afternoons, December 10th and 11th.

This is the first time that the Playshop has staged such a production and much effort is being extended to make it a success. Miracle and Mystery Plays were given from about the tenth to the sixteenth centuries in the church as part of the church service. To give this religious atmosphere to the performance the entire interior of the theater is being redecorated to represent a cathedral. Costumes of the same era are also being made for all members of the large cast.

The text of this play, "The Star," is found in an Evangelium of the eleventh century from Bilsen, now preserved, without press-mark, in the library of the Bollandists in Brussels.

Miss Alice Spalding is directing the production and Mr. Hulbert has charge of the technical work. The production and business staff consist of:
Assistant to director—Jean Holman.
Production manager—Brammer Carlson.

Assistant—Harry Pore.
Properties—Marjorie Ashe, Hugh Elliott.

Lighting—Donald Williams.
Assistant—Arthur Bates.

Costumes—Ruth Staples.
Assistants—Muriel Parnell, Georgia Buckham, Genevieve Bock.

Makeup—Charles C. Shaw.
Business manager—Margaret Evans.
House manager—Charles Stanton.

The music is under the supervision of Robert Brakeman.

PHI DELTS ENTERTAIN DISTRICT CONVENTION

Representatives from Three Nearby Provinces Attend.

During the week-end of December 4-6, representatives of Gamma, Rho, and Upsilon provinces of Phi Delta Theta were guests at the house of the local chapter. During this Tri-Province Convention, problems of common fraternity interest were discussed.

The first session began on Friday, December 4, with Clifford Lewis, president of the local chapter, presiding. Welcome was extended to the delegates by Dr. C. F. Ross, and by Charles C. Shaw, representing the Inter-Fraternity Council. Frank Crusan, representing Pennsylvania Alpha of Lafayette College, gave the responses to the addresses of welcome. Following this open session, there was a closed session in which "Rushing Methods" and "Hell Week" were discussed. Raymond D. Evans, president of Upsilon Province, presided over the closed session.

On Saturday morning Dean Hoffman, president of Gamma Province, took charge of the meeting in which "Scholarship," "Alumni Relations," and "Delinquent Accounts" were considered. In the afternoon, "House Management," "Budgets, Chapter Records, and Reports," and "Factionalism" were discussed, with O. J. Tallman, president of Rho Province, occupying the chair.

As a climax for the convention, a Dinner-Dance was held Saturday night. Over one hundred guests were entertained at the dinner in the chapter house, with a slightly smaller number present at a formal dance in the gymnasium, music being furnished by the "Collegiate Ramblers" of Erie.

The representatives of Gamma Province were as follows: Edwin Hardy of Pennsylvania Beta at Gettysburg College; Cyril Hetsko of Pennsylvania Epsilon at Dickinson College; and Matthew McNeary of Pennsylvania Theta at State College.

VACHEL LINDSAY DIES

Vachel Lindsay, one of the leading poets in the United States, died at his home in Springfield, Illinois, early Saturday of heart disease.

Many people in Meadville and in Allegheny College will remember Mr. Lindsay through his two visits to the college in recent years. He was an intimate friend of Dr. J. R. Schultz, and it was through his efforts that the famous writer was secured for college audiences.

Mr. Lindsay was sometimes criticized by other writers for his supposed unconventional in his writing. His was always characterized by its rhythm and peculiar subject matter. His most famous poem is probably "The Congo."

COLLEGE DISARMAMENT MEETING IN PITTSBURGH

Liberal Club Takes Initiative to Secure Allegheny Delegate.

Disarmament, already brought under the spotlight of student attention by the circulation of disarmament petitions, will be tried into more thoroughly by a meeting soon of students from the colleges of this section.

Down at the University of Pittsburgh soon after the Christmas recess, there will be held a model disarmament conference, to which Allegheny has been invited. Since the conference is to be patterned after an actual international arms conference, the delegates will be designated to represent particular nations. Under this plan an Allegheny representative, for example, might be assigned to represent France, and would then be expected to argue for that nation just as though he were its official delegate. It is expected that this model conference will be interesting and informative and will serve to direct thought toward the important international disarmament conference which is to be held early next year by the League of Nations.

The University of Pittsburgh is inviting all the colleges and similar institutions of higher learning in western Pennsylvania to participate in this novel assembly, which convenes on the week-end of January 10. At Allegheny the Liberal Club is taking the initiative in effort toward making certain that Allegheny will be represented at the conference. It is expected that the Liberal Club will elect a delegate at a meeting early this month, and it is possible that other student organizations may elect delegates.

Liberal Club is also sponsoring the circulation of disarmament petitions which ask, in brief, that the delegates to the League of Nations disarmament conference be instructed to take necessary steps toward disarmament. These petitions, originating with the Women's International League in Washington, (Continued on page 4).

Professor Publishes Article in Nov. 19 Christian Advocate

Any students interested in any aspect of the race problem may be interested in knowing that an article entitled "And the Race Problem Has Changed," written by Dr. I. R. Beller, appeared simultaneously in the November 19 issue of the Christian Advocate of all sections of the country.

Dr. Beller mentioned the fact that Negroes are discriminated against at every turn, and that even in the northern states, which are supposed to be the original friends of the Negroes, they are misunderstood and set apart from the rest of our society. He spoke of a certain Negro family which, tired of the trials and hardships of living in the North, has returned to the state of Virginia where the Negro is better understood.

He further shows that, though we call ourselves Christians, we do not display a Christian attitude as regards the race problem.

In the November 25 issue of the Nation a letter written by Dr. Beller to the editor appeared under the title "A Defense of the Spirit," having reference to the spirit, whether secular or religious, which urges men to attempt to raise social conditions to a higher level by the betterment of health, morals, justice, and other similar engagements.

DOCTOR HENKE VISITS ADJACENT SCHOOLS

Dr. Frederick G. Henke has just completed a lecture tour on which he visited many of the surrounding high schools. He spoke to students in the following places: Colestock Memorial High School, Titusville; Union City High School; Corry High School; North East High School; Westfield, N. Y.; High School; Academy, Strong-Vincent, and East High Schools, Erie. In all of these institutions there are teachers, principals or superintendents who have interested their students in Allegheny.

ANDERSON ANNOUNCES FORENSIC SCHEDULE

Three Trips Are Made by the Members of the Class.

ORGANIZE LEAGUE

High Schools Form Association
Under Supervision of College.

Mr. Anderson, varsity debate coach, has announced the complete program of the debates to be given before members of the class. On November 19 Sanford Corcoran and Harry Thomson discussed the question before the members of the Greenville Rotary Club on December 1. Last Friday William Olson and William Boetcker debated at the meeting of the Geneva, Ohio, Kiwanis Club.

There are two debates scheduled for today. Sanford Corcoran and Harry Thomson will present the question before the members of the Conneaut, Ohio, Kiwanis Club; while Arthur Crawford and Kenneth Johnson will go to Franklin to discuss capitalism before the Rotary Club there. Two more debates are to be presented this year. On December 10 two members of the girls' team, Ruth Birkner and Elinore Page, will journey to the Kiwanis Club of Corry. Four members of the men's team, Kenneth Johnson, Harmon Gilbert, Paul Cares, and Arthur Crawford, will debate on December 14 before the Jamestown, N. Y., Rotary, and either the Lakewood or the Faulkner High School.

Under the supervision of Allegheny College a high school debating league has been formed among the high schools of this vicinity. The college has offered the services of the varsity debaters in the promotion, organization, and coaching of the various high school groups.

A dinner was held at Titusville last Wednesday, at which time the league was organized. Dr. C. F. Ross and Mr. Anderson represented the college. Representatives of the schools that will form the league—Meadville, Titusville, Corry, Cochranton, Oil City, and (Continued on page 4).

Committee of Town Students Sponsor Hobo Party in Gym

The "Hobo Hop," the first dance of its kind ever to be held on the Allegheny Campus, was held in the Gymnasium on Tuesday evening, November 24, from nine o'clock until twelve o'clock, and from all indications the affair was a great success.

A great number of students were in attendance in every conceivable type of hobo attire, which was a prerequisite for entrance to the dance. Decorations were in keeping with the spirit of the affair, consisting of tin cans and old boxes in place of the customary settees and lounges. At intermission the hungry and starving hobos were served hot soup and crackers at the soup kitchen. Apples were sold at one cent apiece or five cents for two, and the net gain accruing from this last resort of the rugged individualists is reported to have been 17 cents.

The program of the evening was very different from that of the customary all-college. Every dance was a cut dance with one dance being set aside for a chance for the women to cut. In place of the usual shoulder-tapping those who staggered merely presented the gentlemen of the couple with a tin can. A "Paul Jones" was instituted just a little before intermission, much to the enjoyment of all present. Shortly after intermission about three hundred balloons came floating down out of the ceiling, and it was explained that they were to be tied to the girls' ankles and that when the music resumed it would be the object of all to break the balloons. This gave an additional touch of hilarity to the party.

President and Mrs. W. P. Tolley chaperoned the dance. Other members of the faculty in attendance were Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Church, Dr. Anna Schaffheitlin, Miss Mildred Ludwig, and Miss Cora LeRoy. The committee in charge of the dance consisted of the Messrs. Arthur Bates, Carl Smock, dan, and Ruth Sundback, and the Messrs. Arthur Bates, Carl Smock, Clarke Beller, and William Lavier.

WAITE ELECTED CAPTAIN

Knighton Waite, three year letterman, was elected to captain the Allegheny football team for 1932, by members of the squad who earned their letters in the season just passed.

Twice winning a place on the Tri-State Eleven, Waite is one of the outstanding guards of the district. He has always proven to be a tower of strength in the Allegheny forward wall. Although usually of a quiet temperament, on the gridiron he possesses a fiery determination which is an excellent indication of leadership. Under him, next year's team should be instilled with a fighting spirit and a love of battle which ought to carry the Blue and Gold banner to great heights.

WILLIAM OLSON WINS WAKEFIELD CONTEST

Thomson and Marks Place
Second and Third in Meet.

William H. Olson was awarded the first prize of $40 in the Wakefield Oration Contest last Thursday for his oration, "The Merry-Go-Round Has Stopped." Second place, which carried with it a prize of $15, was given to Harry Thomson for his speech on "The Profit Motive," and Douglas Marks won the third award of $10 for his outcry against the recurrence of war, "We Shall Not Sleep."

The winning oration presented a vivid analysis of the psychological changes that accompany the present economic conditions. Olson introduced his subject by showing how the people of the country met the state of prosperity that began to rise in 1923. As a result of this period of prosperity the people became more thoughtless; the "Jazz Age" had begun. People climbed upon the jazz merry-go-round, with its brightly colored steeds and its brass trumpets blaring, with joy and laughter. The people were happy; they cared little that the merry-go-round was traveling only in a ceaseless circle.

"Then something happened. The merry-go-round stopped. For a while the people kept their seats on the merry-go-round, for they thought it would soon start again. But it did not and will not start. Then people began to get down from their brightly colored steeds. Some of them were a little dizzy—they had lost much because they had bet that the merry-go-round would go on forever."

Olson then showed how, after the ceaseless circling motion had stopped, the thoughtlessness began to leave the people. He pointed out the change which is noticeable in the people's thoughts as fewer dollars force a sense of values that extends beyond material things, and ended with a plea that the (Continued on page 4).

Psychology Class Visits Institution for Insane at Polk

The abnormal psychology class and several guests, all under the supervision of Dr. Henke, recently visited the state institution for the feeble minded at Polk, Pa. This institution takes in only those who have been born with a defective mind.

Defectives are admitted at the age of three and assigned to a primary ward, where an attempt is made to condition their reflexes by having them string beads of different colors and by helping them to distinguish one color from another. If at the end of three years they fail to pass a final examination on color differentiation and bead stringing, they are regarded as hopeless cases.

Those passing these tests go on through studies leading up to the eighth grade. Students twenty-five years of age are often to be found studying in sixth grade classes. Carpenter and print shops provide manual training for the men, and sewing and artistic weaving classes occupy the women.

Interesting types encountered by the class included one defective who spends all his time drawing airplanes, and another who does little but read sports articles, and displays an amazing knowledge of current athletic developments.

PHI SIGMA IOTA WILL HOLD MEETING DEC. 16

Dr. Church will give a talk at the next meeting of Phi Sigma Iota, honorary romance language fraternity, Wednesday, December 16. The subject of Dr. Church's talk will be one of his own choosing.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Woodring was the place of the last meeting of Phi Sigma Iota, on Wednesday, November 18. Miss Ludwig presented a paper on "The Theater of Francois Cured," and Dr. Woodring gave a paper on "The Theory of French Culture."

'GATORS COMPLETE SUCCESSFUL FOOTBALL SEASON NOVEMBER 21

Lose One Game and Tie Two For Best Record in Recent Years.

Losing but one game out of a hard schedule of nine, the Allegheny College football team covered itself with honor in completing one of the most successful seasons in the history of Allegheny athletics. For the second time in as many years the Blue and Gold earned second place in the Tri-State minor college standing.

New Campus Staff Publishing Paper Beginning Today

Beginning with the present issue, the reorganization announced last week of The Campus administration has been put into effect. The various departments have been completely realigned and placed in charge of sophomores; and the editor-in-chief, aside from handling the editorial column, will act only in a supervisory capacity to the Editorial Board, among whose members responsible charge of the paper will be rotated.

Charles C. Shaw remains as Editor-in-chief. The newly-created Editorial Board is composed of four juniors, who will manage successive editions in the order named: S. F. Cary, Harry Pore, John Fisher, A. Clarke Beller. Nine sophomore competitors have been chosen as department heads, as follows:

News Editors: Fred Ewing, Frank Helfrich, Manson Brown.

Sports Editors: Donald Murray, Robert Cole.

Society Editors: Jack Utley, Jack Pogue.

Feature Editors: David Smith, Harry Thomas.

All freshmen competitors previously on the staff have been assigned to one of these four departments. The women's staff remains unaltered, under the supervision of Miss Ruth Russell and Miss Ruth Staples.

Alumni Bulletin Is Issued Soon after Holidays

The first Alumni Bulletin of this year was published and sent out soon after Thanksgiving. Nearly 3,000 were mailed to the Alumni, to the delegates represented at the inauguration of President Tolley, and to those firms who had part in the construction of the new library.

There were no noticeable changes in this issue of the bulletin. It was a little longer than usual as it carried a full story of the Inauguration and Home Coming Day events. The bulletin also included two articles written by members of the faculty. The first, by Dr. C. W. Skinner, was an article devoted to the new health service established at Allegheny College. The second, written by Arthur Daniels, was an account of the first five football games included in Allegheny's schedule for 1931. Another interesting article in the bulletin was an account of Dr. R. E. Lee while studying at the California Institute of Technology.

One new section, devoted to Campus Clippings, was to be found in the bulletin this time. This new department will be included in all new issues, as The Campus is not being sent free of charge to the Alumni this year. A subscription card was inclosed in the bulletin so that any Alumni desiring to subscribe for The Campus could do so without any added inconvenience.

Although this was the first issue of the bulletin this year, nevertheless another is expected to be completed and issued late in January.

DR. LESLIE SPEAKER AT THOBURN MEETING

Dr. E. A. Leslie, of Boston University School of Theology, spoke at a special meeting of the Thoburn club in Arter Hall on Monday evening, November 30. His talk, "The Romance of the Ministry," was preceded by an informal discussion of the advantages of the school which he represents.

Mr. Locke of the faculty, an alumnus of the Boston school, and ten club members heard Dr. Leslie's short address. The speaker outlined the romance of the minister as an administrator, a physician of souls, a shepherd, and a prophet. He summed up the spirit of the pastor's work as "truth in the mood of worship in the end of service."

Monday noon the Thoburn Club held a luncheon at the Lafayette Hotel, where they were addressed by Dr. Thompson, of Drew University. The talk, like Dr. Leslie's, is a part of the club's program to acquaint members with outstanding theological schools.

Not since a decade ago have the Alligators compiled a more impressive record—six victories, two ties and one defeat. A few years back Allegheny was before the eyes of the sporting world through the failure to win a single game in one particular season; this year Allegheny found itself in prominence by appearing near the top of every list of the East's unbeaten. Only after Allegheny had dropped the final game to West Virginia Wesleyan did her name fall from the ranks of the highest.

In the first two conditioning games the Alligators brushed away Clarion and Edinboro by scores of 45-0 and 27-7. Then Westminster proved unexpectedly weak before the onslaught of the Blue and Gold and succumbed, 39-7. Allegheny next rode to a 20-0 victory over a stubborn Tri-State eleven, and downed Adrian, 26-0. Up to this time the Alligators had been riding on a crest of victory. They had chalked up 157 points to 14 for their opponents, and had never been seriously threatened. However, the ever-powerful Crimson of Grove City checked the speed of the Blue and Gold dreadnaught by holding Allegheny to a 7-7 tie. Nevertheless, the Alligator machine still had some force remaining, and shaded St. Bonaventure 7-6. But the limited strength of the Alligator was beginning to tell. Geneva was held to a scoreless deadlock only because of the fighting spirit of an Allegheny team that didn't know when to concede defeat. In the final contest the weakened Alligators crumpled before the terrific drives of West Virginia Wesleyan by a 38-7 score, and the hopes for an undefeated season were shattered. But in the eyes of the team's followers the prowess of the Blue and Gold was in no sense lessened. The last four games had proven to be just a trifle too much for the limited strength of "Maud" Crum's boys. In the course of the season the Alligators rolled up a total of 178 points to 65 for the opposition. Of the enemy's 65 points, Wesleyan contributed more than half.

And thus Allegheny turns to the "amateurs" next Fall for its football competition after compiling an enviable record in Tri-State ranks.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION HELD HERE LAST WEEK

Camilo Osias Principal Speaker on Extensive Program.

Allegheny College was host during the past week-end of the Student Council of Western Pennsylvania, a division of the State Y. M. C. A. Seventeen colleges, two seminaries and two preparatory schools were represented. The delegates were housed in the fraternities, dormitories, and homes of the faculty men adjacent to the campus.

The theme of the conference was "Modern Students in a Changing World," and the principal speaker on the program was Camilo Osias who has been president of the National University of the Philippine Islands for ten years. Other speakers on the program were as follows: Mr. J. C. Mace, lecturer and prominent radio speaker; and Mr. J. R. Wilson, general secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement.

During the conference, several business sessions were held, with an occasional "time out" for recreation. Visits were also made to various points of interest in Meadville.

The hosts of the delegates were the members of Allegheny's Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, which is composed of the following men: William Boetcker, Robert Brakeman, Paul Cares, Charles Hartung, John Coffin, and faculty advisor, Dr. I. R. Beller.

COMMITTEE SELECTED TO CONFER ON CHAPEL

The Student Senate, in its latest meeting, appointed a committee consisting of Wilnot Craig, Howard Laufberger, and Oliver Turner to meet with the faculty chapel committee to discuss chapel programs. The exact nature of their plan is not as yet definite, but it will give the students a more active part in chapel than they now have. The outcome of the conference will appear as soon as the chapel commission grants this committee a hearing.

ALLEGHENY AS A HOST

Last week-end Allegheny College played host to two national organizations who met here in annual conventions. In both cases Allegheny was selected from a large group of colleges who vied to entertain these associations, and we firmly believe that the college fulfilled all expectations held by the visiting delegates.

Such functions are of great advertising value to the college, for students and educational leaders from all points of the country become familiar with the school and form impressions as to its hospitality, its achievements, and other salient features. The worth of these impressions, as far as the college is concerned, is a result of the manner in which we receive the visitors and the way in which we entertain them during their stay.

Allegheny should make a conscious effort to secure conventions of more organizations and should make a special attempt to send them away from here with nothing but favorable comment about our college. Direct advertising is the most valuable, and the entertainment of conventions is one of the most direct forms of advertising.

THE SCRUBBING BRUSH

Everybody's doing it! Why not us? Doing what? Picking All-American teams. We are quite sure that we got the players right as we started that before we had the first shot but filled in their school after we had killed the first quarter (dear season is also on). But as I was saying I was a little hazy and my partner was a big hazy when we picked the schools. Well, anyway, you will have to excuse any mistakes in schools. I think that all mistakes in school should be excused anyway; then I would pass. Well, here they are:

Ends—Court of Justice, Smith of Brothers.
Tackles—Qatse of Milk, Kurth of Drink.
Guards—Baker of Bread, Price of Cheese.
Center—Yarr of Thereyarr.
Backs—Wood of Wouldhave, Garbark of Course, Reider of Bicycles, Mohler of Bicuspid.
Honorable mention—Battles of Bull-run, Berger of Limberger, Booth of Telephone, March of Events.

It seems much better to be a deer this season than a hunter as so far there have been two more hunters than deer killed.

Where Turkish tobacco grows

Eastward ho! Four thousand miles nearer the rising sun—let's go! To the land of mosques and minarets—so different from our skyscrapers, stacks and steeples.

Let's see this strange, strange country. Let's see the land where the tobacco* grows in small leaves on slender stalks—to be tenderly picked, leaf by leaf, hung in long fragrant strings, shelter-dried and blanket-cured. Precious stuff!

Let's taste that delicate aromatic flavor—that subtle difference that makes a cigarette!

XANTHI . . CAVALLA . . SMYRNA

. . SAMSOON . . famous tobaccos!

*Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the "spice," the "sauce"—or what rich, sweet cream is to coffee!

You can taste the Turkish in Chesterfield—there's enough of it, that's why. Chesterfield has not been stingy with this important addition to good taste and aroma; four famous kinds of Turkish leaf—Xanthi, Cavalla, Samsoun and Smyrna—go into the smooth, "spicy" Chesterfield blend.

This is just one more reason for Chesterfield's better taste. Tobaccos from far and near, the best of their several kinds—and the right kinds. And pure, tasteless cigarette paper, the purest made. The many requisites of a milder, better smoke, complete!

That's why they're GOOD—they've got to be and they are.

Allegheny in Athletics

COLLEGE ANNOUNCES FOOTBALL SCHEDULE Seven Games Carded With Non-Subsidizing Schools.

Allegheny's football schedule for 1932 was released last week by Athletic Director Way. Seven games, of which four will be played at home, have been carded.

As a result of the non-subsidization policy which goes into effect in 1932, Allegheny has been obliged to drop such time-honored rivals as Grove City, Westminster, Thiel, and Geneva, while Adrian, St Bonaventure, West Virginia Wesleyan, and Clarion are also absent from next year's lineup. Edinboro is the only opponent that is being re-scheduled from 1931.

Following the opening tilt with Edinboro, Springfield College will be met at Springfield, Mass. After playing Dickinson at home, the Alligators will journey to Ithaca, N. Y., to meet the Ithaca School of Physical Education. Then Oberlin and Alfred will be contested at home on successive Saturdays before the Blue and Gold invades West Virginia to finish the season against Bethany. Although at the first glance most of these teams appear to be "strangers," in reality Allegheny has contested Dickinson, Alfred, and Bethany in past seasons, leaving only Springfield, Ithaca and Oberlin as the strictly new opponents. Dickinson has been played three times, last appearing here in 1924 when Allegheny won 7-0; however, back in 1920 and '21 Dickinson defeated Allegheny by scores of 7-0 and 28-6. In 1921 Alfred and Allegheny fought to a 0-0 tie, while Bethany last tangled with the Blue and Gold in 1926, to fall the victim of the Alligators by a 14-7 score.

The schedule is interesting in that it is a radical departure from former cards. Allegheny has a good chance of making an excellent record in 1932, due to the fact that all of the opponents have their sports programmes run on a strictly amateur basis.

Schedule:
Oct. 8—Edinboro.
Oct. 15—at Springfield.
Oct. 22—Dickinson.
Oct. 29—at Ithaca.
Nov. 5—Oberlin.
Nov. 12—Alfred.
Nov. 19—at Bethany.

people continue this movement to return once more to the fine things of life.

Harry Thomson in his oration which took second place presented a plea against the policy of the personal-profit motive, which is causing intense suffering throughout the world. "The profit motive," he said, "must be subordinated to the welfare of society as a whole. Only then can we free ourselves from the absurd paradox of poverty in the midst of plenty."

"We Shall Not Sleep" presented an entreaty against wars in the future. The speaker showed how the people cheered and shouted in 1917 because they thought there would never be another war. "Now, however, the spirits of the dead are trying to make themselves heard. For the present generation they carry a message—'Keep the peace won by our blood.' For those who want war they carry a warning—'If you break faith with us who die, we shall not sleep.'"

Other speakers were Robert Bair, whose "Patriots" showed the necessity of patriots in peace just as much as in war; William Boetcker, who denounced the present system of student government in his oration, "Student Politics;" and Harold Loyal, whose oration "National Uniform Divorce Laws," pointed out the necessity for national laws of such a character.

Dr. William A. Elliott presided over the contest. Dr. Elliott discussed the usefulness of such contests as this one and told of literary and speaking contests of the past. The present contest was founded several years ago by James A. Wakefield of Pittsburgh, who created an endowment in the name of his grandfather, Rev. Samuel Wakefield, from which prizes are given each year to the students presenting the three best orations.

The judges of the contest were Rev. Franklin J. Kennedy, Mr. B. F. Miller, and Mr. Dickson Andrews.

Grid Season Closes With Loss to Strong W. Va. Wesleyan

In closing the football season on November 21 at Buckhannon, the Blue and Gold succumbed to West Virginia Wesleyan in its first and only defeat of the year, 38 to 7.

Wesleyan's attack was led by "Gip" Battles who scored three touchdowns himself, threw two passes that Bachtel carried over for touchdowns, and averaged well over ten yards each of the thirty-one times he carried the ball.

The 'Gator's lone touchdown came in the second quarter when Garbark plunged over after a sustained drive from mid-field, and Varano converted the extra point.

Until the final period Allegheny checked the Wesleyan advance extremely well, but in that quarter the Bobcats' power was too much to withstand and they were crushed beneath three more touchdowns.

GARBARK HONORED

Robert Garbark, spectacular fullback of the Allegheny Alligators, was given honorable mention on the Associated Press All-American Team. It is interesting to note that Garbark and Battles of West Virginia Wesleyan were the only two players from small colleges that were so recognized. Garbark also was designated as second string fullback on the All-Pennsylvania mythical eleven.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA TO ENTER ESSAY CONTEST

The local chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa, professional educational fraternity, is entering an essay contest conducted by the national Kappa Phi Kappa organization. GERMAN CLUB MAKES PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS

Some very enjoyable social events are being staged this year by the German Club. At a Christmas party which is being planned for December 15, a Christmas pantomime will be given, German Christmas carols will be sung, and genuine German confections will be served.

Meeting at the home of Ruth Sundback, thirty members of the German Club were delightfully entertained on the evening of Tuesday, November 17. Miss Sundback showed moving pictures which her father had taken last Spring in the ancient city of Nuremberg, Germany. These pictures portrayed much of the medieval architecture of Nuremberg, a city which has changed relatively little since the Middle Ages. Additional entertainment in the form of solo dancing, group singing, and other features were furnished by the new members of the club. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, and coffee were served.

The complete program of the meeting follows:
Folk Dance—Wilma Kuhnert, Winifred Strick.

An Evening of Student Fellowship—J. Ungerman, W. Frost, Hewitt, E. Kemble, Lois Husk, Mansell, E. Houck, Campbell, E. Gillen, K. Waite.

Poems—J. Murphy, Betty Cappe, C. Beiler, Gary Rowsch.

Riddles—Anna Strott, M. Schuman, M. Yohan, K. Johnson, J. Borrisson.

Song and Dance—Lois Gratz, Ellenetta Beachley.

Moving Pictures of Nuremberg—Ruth Sundback.

ton, D. C., are being sent throughout the United States, and bear such prominent signatures as those of Henry Ford, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Bertrand Russell, and many others. At Allegheny most of the faculty and between fifty and seventy students have signed. A petition was circulated in downtown Meadville and gained a number of prominent signatories.

"Disarmament" is the general topic which will be discussed by the Liberal Club this year, and timely phases of this subject will be considered at the meetings. At the first important meeting, Douglas Marks led a discussion on the Chinese-Japanese situation.

Any one may be a member of Liberal Club, and all who are interested are invited to attend the meetings. Meeting dates are announced from time to time.

Made FRESH

never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh—not parched or toasted—and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing—switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can.
