Mr. O. B. Stephenson,
The Emerson Lyceum Bureau,
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. Stephenson:

I have your letter of June 3rd. Yes, I cannot undertake much lecturing next season. I had written Mr Burke that I would be glad to cut it all out. My other engagements are so pressing that I can hardly afford it; but, of course, if you have taken a week and have already partly filled it, I will take care of the dates. As I understand it, you have three and expect two more. If I go at all, of course I want a full week.

Kindly let me know as soon as possible just what the dates are that you have down.

Very truly yours,
