

Electricity of 1840 = sectional

Electrical college-

$$L = 180$$

Opposite unit = 123,

Popular vote

$$L = 1866.452$$

$$D = 1291.574$$

$$\text{Brek.} = 850.082$$

$$\text{Bell} = 646.124$$

$$2787.780$$

$$1866.452$$

$$\hline 921.328$$

no vote from slave states.

See this summary in Blaine

V. II

Herald Nov 11. '60, p. 5.

L. in his room at State House, beguiled - L. would not allow them to be expected to mildness - calm, save nervous twitch of unluminous. All returns first - Decatur just dispatch - republican gains.

goes to ~~Western~~ ^{Union} telegraph office

Allen expected to go for Douglas gives 1242 causes sensation - Chicago 2500 for L.

"Send it - to the boys" said L. Cheers from the crowd in ^{Assembly} hall where people had gathered. "My dear - we have from N. J."

begin to be helped by 1000' cheer, good vote for L. In St Louis received with joy.

Great inquiry: from P. with telegram from Cambridge claiming 10000 for L. - L. patience is being from N. J. in.

creating just before midnight L. picked across street to a spread by ladies for L.

"How do you do in Pres?" "about - you said you joined the Republican" cheer.

telegram announcing that - New York City - gan the fusion. only 27,000 votes - seemed undesirable - cheer - rolling on floor.

whole town in a whorl!" and you said you joined the R's "

L. returned to telegraph office from state house

Tribune ^{11/15} L. passed most of day in ^(his own) ~~room~~ ^{install house & night} ~~house~~ ^{receiving visitors}. Chatting calmly city - enlivened by rising land of music discharge of cannon shot ^{but - spirit of friends in} Parks at Court House; L. voted abt 8 o'clock when crowd had dwindled - cut off his own name - crowd about him in a great popular demonstration as he pushed his way to room where people were

Tribune dispatch of early morning Jan 7.
shows that L. started to telegraph office until nearly morning.

all the correspondents note that during the day he carried on an arduous conversation on rail-splitting and in his day with a man - quite as much interested as ever declared as he had seen a few months before in discussing Mr. J's attitude in election of

The only demagogue L. permitted himself was when he leaned against the complete success of the Rep. ticket in his own precinct

"Should now get a few ticks back" L's remark when ^{Missouri} W. returns came in
"did not feel quite easy" as he said about it - 2 when he found the ticket was carried he gave ~~himself~~ a jubilant chuckle & mut come
ranging cannon all night -

Henry