Dear Miss Tarbell,

Thank you for the suggested cuts in the Lincoln article. I do not know yet whether we will have to avail ourselves of them.

I greatly regret it was impossible for us to help Zella de Milhau. But unfortunately we have on hand no cut of a really good photograph of you. Miss Paine of our staff has written Miss de Milhau, offering her a rather unsatisfactory cut which I am afraid will not suit the purpose you have in mind.

I shall most certainly try to get to your bazaar.

Sincerely yours,

Eleanor Carroll
