

January 10, 1921

Mr. Elbert A. Wickes, Manager,
The Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau,
80 Boylston St.,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Wickes:

I have your letter of January 8, saying that you have booked me for the Boston Teachers' Association for the date of Wednesday, April 13.

I am talking on "Industrial Relations" this winter mainly.
Is that satisfactory to them? I am also talking a bit on "The New Demands on Women." Kindly let me know what they want.

You say that you would like to arrange another engagement at that time. Very well, if you can make it consecutive; but not more than one, please, as I am going to be pretty busy at that period.

In sending my itinerary, will you not be good enough to put down the name of the best hotel in the place to which I am going?

Very truly yours,
