Dear Mr. Conant:

I am off to the country until after the Fourth. I am sending these proofs that you may have them by the date you mentioned, July first.

The Security Bill is not out of Conference Committee but Dr. Andrews of the Association for Labor Legislation - he knows more about these things than anyone else I know - tells me that whatever happens this statement will be close enough to the truth. You see it is saved by the phrase "at the present writing." There is little probability that there will be any change of consequence on the points which I have covered, so I think you are sufficiently safeguarded.

Very sincerely

Mr. Lawrence Conant
