My dear Miss Tarbell :

A note from your secretary tells me that you are out of town and I hesitate to ask you for a little information which I am sure you would gladly give if you were here.

As I shall continue my Lincoln pilgrimage on Thursday with most of my serious troubles over, I do very much wish to know where to find Covell's Hill Cemetery ; so far, I have been unable to locate it. If you will tell me, I shall thank you sincerely.

I hope it may be my privilege and pleasure to consult with you at some time in the future in regard to the work I am trying to do. Again I thank you for your kindness and courtesy to me.

Very truly yours

John B. MacHarg
