

Berks County house of Mordecai Lincoln built in 1733

VIII

2502

First house built by Mordecai Lincoln on Lincoln's Hill above his grist mill at Cohasset, Mass.

37 27 906

Mount
#1-RES

$\frac{1}{8} \times \frac{3}{4}$

House built in Scituate, Mass. !
early in the 17th Century by the great-great grandfather of Abraham Lincoln for his second wife, the Widow Gannett.

House built on Linville Creek
of the Shenandoah Valley, Va.
in 1800 by Jacob Lincoln,
great-uncle of Abraham Lincoln, on land bought in 1768 by "Virginia John"
Lincoln, Jacob's father.

3

h x h

h, h x h

Old St. Luke's Church of Highland New, built in 1681 and in continuous use for more than 260 years

Headstone of a grave in Covell's Hill Cemetery,
Monmouth Co., New Jersey

