

ALBERT R. McALLISTER
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
BRIDGETON, NEW JERSEY

September 12th, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. Nineteenth St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Col. J. Howard Willets resides at Port Elizabeth, New Jersey. This is a small village which is reached by taking electric train from Camden to Millville, N. J. A taxi would then take you the remaining six miles.

I wrote the former letter without consulting the Colonel, but will hasten to tell him what I have done and your reply. He is a grand old man and I can assure you of full co-operation from him, since he is a great admirer of President Lincoln.

I would suggest that you write to him at Port Elizabeth and arrange for interview. He is at home most of the time during the Summer months, but to be absolutely sure of this an appointment would be best.

I trust that my suggestion may result in your securing some new and valuable information concerning this great national character.

Very sincerely yours,

AR. Allister

F.