

Dear Ida Tarbell, Just finished "Owen D. Young" feeling sick and ashamed for you whom I once so admired. Wondered if she succumbed in her later years and had a "case" on him; wondered if she was paid by the different companies; or if she was losing her mental vigor. If you want to know the status of the Stone Webster Co. take a trip to the West. Tacoma threw them out bodily, Seattle is struggling to free their grip and Bellingham ditto. They bot p^wer for 1½ and sold it back to us for 6½. Got laws over that forbade a city to sell out of its limits, etc., etc., et Why not get some information before drooling?
