Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am sending herewith a copy of our Winter number of the Virginia Quarterly Review, in the belief that you will be interested in seeing Harold Hutchinson's review of "The Nationalization of Business." I hope also that you will find something of interest in the rest of the magazine.

This letter gives me an opportunity to extend to you again the invitation to contribute to the Quarterly that has been made by predecessors as editor. I do not make any specific suggestions, as I do not know what work you are now engaged on, but I should welcome your suggestion of themes you would care to write on for the Quarterly. The Quarterly pays at the rate of five dollars a page of 350 words, with payment on publication.

Sincerely yours,

LD.D
