

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, WASHINGTON.

Feb. 1. 1876,

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

On the evening of February the fifteenth we are to have the honor of having the President and Mrs. Wilson dine with us. My wife and I hope you can run over to Washington and give us the pleasure of your company at dinner that evening. The hour is eight o'clock.

Looking forward with pleasure to seeing you, I am, with sentiments of esteem in which my wife joins,

Sincerely yours,

Josephus Daniels

Would you be good enough to wire your acceptance?

Thank you for the letter you and Mrs. Daniels do me. I shall be happy to accept your 15th invitation for dinner on February 15th at 8 o'clock and shall look forward with interest to the occasion.
