Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
 Hotel McAllister,
 Miami, Fla.

My Dear Miss Tarbell :-

Thanks for your good letter of the 27th. We have no accusations against you for rudness because we quite appreciated the strenuous work you had in hand after leaving Mansfield. We certainly were pleased to have you with us and we hope you can be here again sometime.

It so happens that I do not possess a copy of your book "In the Footsteps of Lincoln" and if I could have an autograph copy, such as you speak of, I certainly would appreciate and prize it.

We are now reading Carl Sandburg's Abraham Lincoln and we find it intensely interesting.

We shall look forward with great interest to your forthcoming articles on conditions in Florida .

You have my high regards and best wishes in every particular in which Mrs. Bonar heartily joins me.

Very Sincerely Yours,
