Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Mr. MacAlarney has sent me your letter of October 9th to him, together with the memo on the Henry Wallace Phillips material.

We have gone into these stories fairly completely from time to time, and once tried to interest our studios in THE MASCOOT OF SWEET BRIAR GULCH, but it seemed then--and of course this would be even truer now--to be rather old fashioned screen material.

If from your greater knowledge of Mr. Phillips' works there is one of the titles still free to which this criticism would not apply, we should be glad to look over again that particular story.

Very truly yours,

MANAGING EDITOR.
