Dear Edna:

I am shocked to know of this accident to Dr. Krech. I called her up yesterday about an appointment for myself and they told me she was in a santarium. I took it that she had gone for an operation on her foot, the foot of which she had talked to me. They said she would be back today. I think we better call her up this evening or in the morning and find out what she thinks about going ahead with the tea. It is a shame that she should have had such an accident.

You are mighty good to be interested in my book. I hope it won't disappoint you too much and don't hesitate to say so if it does.

I am glad you are going to take that Phi Betta Kappa job . I don't believe you will lose by it in the long run provided you don't over-work at it.

I will call you up as soon as I have talked to Dr. Krech or you call me if more convenient.

Affectionately
