Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City,
New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am advised by "The New York Times Book Review" of April 23rd inst., that you have just issued an autobiography entitled "All In The Day's Work."

I am enclosing my personal check for $4.00, the price being advertised as $3.50, and I will feel greatly honored if you will mail me an autographed copy of said book.

Mrs. Monnett joins me in wishing you many years more of good health, as we both kindly remember you and how many people enjoyed you at the little reception we had at our residence in Columbus, and also how you helped me while on the platform in Kansas.

We congratulate you on the many years of splendid work and also on your good health. I think the photo by Alfred Cheney Johnson is a faithful reproduction of your facial expression, except you have grown somewhat stouter than when we knew you.

Sincerely yours,

J. S. Monnett
