INTER-COLLEGIATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

WON BY ALLEGHENY AS ANNOUNCED IN LAST WEEK'S CAMPUS

Is Briefly Described by the Winner, Mr. Bruce S. Wright—The Contest Was of Very High Standard and the Decision Was Close for All Except First Place.

The Tri-State Inter-collegiate Oratorical contest was held on Tuesday evening, May 9th, in the Muskingum College chapel, New Concord, Ohio. Muskingum is one of the oldest schools of the United Presbyterian denomination. The college is co-educational, with a student-body of about 150. Dr. J. Knox Montgomery is the president. Under his leadership great advance has been made in the last two or three years. The Association was royally entertained and finely treated by the Muskingum students and faculty. At the contest the chapel was filled, about 300 listened to the orations. The orations were, without exception, of a high standard. Both in thought and delivery they excelled. At the close of the contest one of the judges said, "It was splendid oratory; not a poor orator in the lot." This will be noticed in the final rank given in the judges' decision—Allegheny, first; Westminster and Waynesburg, tie for second; Geneva and Muskingum, tie for third; Bethany, fourth.

Fraternity and Club Base Ball.

The second inter-fraternity base ball game was played Monday morning when the Phi Delt's defeated the Phi Gams by a score of 19 to 2. Robinson's home run, Ballantyne's long slide, Ferry's sensational fly and Merrill's "pretty steal" were features of the game.

Batteries—Challinor and Jones; Horn, Tillotson and Coggan.

The Willard Club defeated the Farley Club on Monday morning with a score of 10 to 4.

Monday afternoon the Delt's won from the Sigs with the score of 12 to 5.

HIRAM'S WILLOW WIELDERS WALLOPED

ALLEGHENY DEFEATED BUCKEYE BOYS IN GOOD GAME.

Mitinger Held Visitors to Seven Scattered Hits—Kennedy's Fielding and Batting the Feature of the Game.

In a rather slow and uninteresting game Allegheny defeated the Hiram College team on Saturday afternoon by a score of 5 to 2. With the exception of an occasional bit of brilliant fielding there was little in the play worthy of special mention. Notwithstanding the steady and at times very effective work of the visiting pitcher, Allegheny succeeded in bunching enough hits to win out handily. Four of Allegheny's five runs were made after two men had been retired. A couple of errors by the visitors combined with four timely singles, gave Allegheny a lead that Hiram could not overcome.

The fielding of the visitors was decidedly ragged throughout the game. The first inning looked more like a comedy of errors than a base ball game. Before the inning had closed no fewer than three glaring misplays had been chalked up against their infield.

For seven innings Mitinger pitched a very pretty game, allowing only three of the visitors to reach first on hits. During the last two innings Hiram touched him up for four singles and these, together with a base on balls and a couple errors gave them their only runs.

In the first inning Kennedy won the applause of the spectators by a fine running catch in right center. In the ninth inning he retired the side by returning the ball to Wynn before the runner could get back to second.

For four innings neither side scored. Allegheny had men on bases in each and in the first it looked as if Allegheny was scheduled for a walkover. After three men had reached first and the bases were full, Hiram pulled together and prevented Allegheny's scoring.

In the fifth inning Comfort reached first by being hit by pitched ball. Wynn sent a slow one down to Phillips who in his attempt to head off the runner, threw the ball into the crowd. Comfort scored on the error. Kennedy struck out. Wynn attempted to get home on a passed ball but was caught at the plate. Horn singled to left center and a moment later stole second. Nelson drove a hot grounder toward third. The ball caromed off the fielder's glove and struck Horn enabling both men to reach bases safely. Clark retired the side by going out at first.

In the sixth inning after two men had gone out easily Fink sent a nice clean single to center. Comfort also singled to center. Wynn's grounder was badly handled by Line and Fink and Comfort scored.

In the next inning Clark reached first through Hindall's failure to hold the ball. Davenport bunted down the third base line. Prichard, who got the ball seemed to be at a loss as to where to throw it and before he could make up his mind both Davenport and Clark had reached the bases. Mitinger dropped a fly in right center scoring Clark. Davenport scored a moment later on a passed ball. Fink ended the scoring with a fly to left field.

The visitors also warmed up a little in this inning and before the last man was out had scored two runs. Smith flew out to Wynn, who made a nice running catch in right field. Arnold singled to right, stole second and reached third on a wide throw to head him off at second. Hubbell drew base on balls. Arnold scored on passed ball. Hubbell stole second and scored a moment later on Prichard's Texas

Leager back of Short. The men following went out in order.

Annual Reception To Senior Class

Given By President and Mrs. Crawford—This Delightful Affair of the Spring Term Was Greatly Enjoyed.

The annual reception given Tuesday night by President and Mrs. Crawford to the members of the graduating class and to the faculty and ladies was a delightful affair. The reception was well attended and as this year's class consists of some thirty members, the rooms were crowded. The decorations were elaborate. Profuse bunches of roses and carnations were effectively used in the decorative scheme. The dining room was trimmed in yellow and green, the class colors, a large banner and yellow daisies carrying out the effect. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room and from the fruit bowl in the parlor.

Y. M. C. A.

The weekly devotional meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was well attended. Mr. H. E. Dodge, of the Warren, Pa., Y. M. C. A., spoke on the subject, "The Pace that Kills." Mr. Dodge is a direct and fluent speaker and holds the attention of the audience in a wonderful manner. This is the second time he has been with us, and we hope to have him here again next year.

Entered as Second-Class matter October 30, 1904, at the Postoffice at Meadville, Pa., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

When the precocious five-year-old dons knickerbockers and dons pants, he passes out of an old life epoch into a new one. Not that the pants of themselves cause any sudden evolutionary throb in the boy's existence; for they are the mere outward signs of inward development. Nevertheless the assuming of these bifurcated habiliments has a certain intrinsic value to the five-year-old. The very act of change inspires him with the joy of anticipation, and the memory of the act will cause him throughout after years many, many joys of reminiscence.

Now it is the same case, in a more solemn degree, when a Freshman, green, uncouth, innocent, becomes a Sophomore, wise, wily, sophisticated; when a Junior, blase, lazy, irresponsible, becomes a Senior, reverend, authoritative, infallible. Such a metamorphosis should not be devoid of fitting recognition. During the year such a recognition has been intermittently proposed in the shape of a ceremony to be known as Moving Up—the honored day of that ceremony being canonized as Moving Up Day. No definite day or method of procedure has as yet been suggested.

It is our purpose here to suggest a suitable plan for the execution of this much-desired project. The first difficulty is to reconcile the time of Dismissal of Seniors with the time of Moving-Up. It is evident that these two ceremonies are so intrinsically related as to make it necessary that they be performed on the same occasion. Now, in order to avoid a re-seating of the entire student-body in chapel for a period of three or four weeks—a thing which would be highly impracticable—we propose that the Seniors consent to postpone their dismissal till the last Saturday before the regular examinations. On that day the whole morning after ten o'clock would be given over to the function under discussion.

The customary chapel service would be held as usual. Immediately following the chapel service would take place the formal Dismissal of the Seniors, who would march from the auditorium. Upon this the president would address the Junior class, commenting on its completion of a third college year, and its entrance upon a last. The Junior president would then respond on behalf of the class in a few fitting remarks, thereupon the class would take the empty places vacated by the Seniors. And so on throughout the remaining classes. After the moving-up of the Freshmen, the entire student-body would leave the chapel in their wonted order, and, meeting the Seniors without, would form an academic procession, Seniors leading. The line of march would cover various portion of the campus, and would be accompanied and punctuated by college songs and speeches. After a suitable time the procession would break up and the different classes would parade individually, giving vent to class spirit by singing, yelling, or in whatever manner they saw fit—it being understood, of course, by the lower classes, that the time is one of pacific hatchet burying, not of hostile or inimical pursuits. The closing feature of the morning might be the formation of an immense peace-ring, in which every undergraduate, man or co-ed, Hellenic or Teutonic, from wisest Senior to greenest Freshman, should join hands in a magnificent circle and after loyally singing "Thy Name Dear Alleghy," give the old college cheer as a climax to the great festa.

The plan of having the same professor lead chapel on three successive mornings is generally approved by the students. The services of the last two weeks have been unusually rich in thought and inspiration. The standard is now high and should be maintained.

Form means nothing as such, but it may be made rich with life if thought enters into it. The formal part of the service should become more vital. It should not be "words, words, words" or degenerate into a lifeless chant.

Exchange Department

The Cornell Daily Sun has been incorporated for $10,000. It is the first college paper to have that distinction.

Chicago University is making an addition of 18 new buildings this year at a cost of from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000.

From the larger colleges come reports of freshman enrollment, the largest in the history of the colleges. In fact the big college which cannot boast of the largest freshman class in its history lacks some of the elements of attractiveness.

Twenty-five botany students of the University of Chicago will make a tour of Ireland and Scotland next summer as an advance class in research. They will be gone about six weeks and will receive full credit for their work.—Ex.

The class of '07 of the University of California has a Chinese student on the editorial staff of the Blue and Gold. He has charge of the Oriental department, which will be a feature of the '07 publication.

A game of base ball has been arranged between Stanford University and Yaseda University of Japan.

A remarkable fact in the history of Dartmouth College foot ball is that of the thirty-eight games played during the past four years she has lost but four.—Ex.

Religious Notes.

On Friday evening the Mission Study Class will have its last meeting of the year. An especially interesting meeting is expected.

W. B. Rickey will lead Y. M. C. A. next week. The subject is "Evidences of True Manliness on the Athletic Field."

The subject under discussion in Y. W. C. A. meeting was "Empied of Self." Miss Florence Gravel led. Miss Foster sang a solo, and Misses Berkey and Stolzenbach sang a duet.

Next Sunday Miss Pettingill will lead Y. W. C. A., the subject being, "Little Deeds of Kindness."

Seniors Inaugurate New Class Customs.

Will Bid Farewell to the Different College Buildings With Appropriate Ceremonies and Will Burn Senior Orations.

This is more generally a year of transition, of the adoption of new ideas than any in the history of the class of 1905, and it is in keeping with this idea that it seems appropriate for us to initiate some destructive class observances which, it is hoped, will be adopted by succeeding classes.

The support of class ceremonials is an index of class spirit. Appearing day was later than was intended; the present class believe that it should come early in February in the two term program and it will not then detract from Senior dismissal.

The class of '05 is planning to inaugurate the custom of saying farewell to the buildings with brief speeches and singing, and to revive the ceremony of burning Senior orations. The former can be made a permanent and attractive exercise of commencement week which will be of interest to the entire student-body. The latter should be of mock funeralistic solemnity and a source of much merriment. The memory of the distinctively class affairs will be held longer than all others and are the basis of the traditions we Alleghenians are seeking to establish.

ENGAGEMENT OF AN ALUMNUS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. Arthur Thompson, '97, to Wed Miss Marion Dinwiddie Gordon, of Cumberland, Md.—A Skeech of Mr. Thompson's Career.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert H. Gordon, of Cumberland, Md., announce the engagement of their oldest daughter, Miss Marion Dinwiddie Gordon, to Mr. Arthur W. Thompson, of Wheeling, W. Va. The nuptial event will be solemnized the latter part of June.

Mr. Thompson, who formerly resided in Cumberland, is superintendent of the Wheeling division of the B. & O. with office and residence in Wheeling. He is the youngest division superintendent in the service of the Baltimore and Ohio, and one of the youngest railroad men, to hold and fill an office of like responsibility and executive force in the United States. His promotion has been rapid, but it has been purely the result of personal effort and ability, and has not been fostered by favoritism. Mr. Thompson entered the engineering department of the B. & O. upon graduating from Allegheny. He demonstrated his genius for engineering in the building of the connecting link of the Cumberland Valley and B. & O., which was accomplished in a period of time so brief, as to seem incredible to the lay mind. It paved the way for his appointment as division superintendent with headquarters in Cumberland. His transfer to Wheeling was made that he might supervise extensive improvements then in contemplation and now practically completed on the Wheeling division, improvements in road bed, bridge construction and new buildings that cost several million dollars.

Miss Gordon, the bride prospective, is a charming, beautiful and cultured representative of Cumberland, her affable personality, rare conversational powers, and courteous manner, having enlisted a host of friends, who rejoice in anticipation of the hymeneal happening in the "Month of Roses."

Honored Alumnus Passes Away.

THE COLLEGE MOURNS A LOYAL SON AND TRUSTEE.

Hon. Frank P. Ray, of the Class of '62, Died at the City Hospital on May 11.

Hon. Frank P. Ray, died at the City hospital Thursday morning about 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Ray's last illness was from blood poisoning, although other complications arose which hastened the end. He was not feeling as well as usual when he left Meadville on January 14 to assume his duties as assemblyman at Harrisburg. Not improving he returned to his home in this city on January 18, being confined to his residence on Diamond Park until February 18, when he was taken to the hospital.

The attending physicians decided that it was necessary to amputate Mr. Ray's right leg, which was done. The patient rallied from the operation and seemed to improve for a time. His case took a turn for the worse and despite his courageous battle for life and all that medical skill could do, he steadily grew worse until death relieved his sufferings. His friends hoped against hope for his recovery and bulletins from his bedside were watched with intense interest and anxiety.

Mr. Ray was born near Quincy, Ill., July 30, 1838. He removed to Clarion county, Pa., in 1848, and began teaching school when 17 years of age; in 1858 entered Allegheny college, at Meadville, and was graduated in the class of 1862. In April, 1861, he enlisted in Jefferson county, where he was teaching, in Company K, Eighth Pennsylvania regiment, and served under General Patterson in the Valley campaign of 1861. He was admitted to the Crawford county bar in July 1862; went west and was admitted to practice in the court of Illinois in February, 1863; returned to Pennsylvania in the latter part of 1864, and in 1865 began the practice of law at Meadville, where he has since remained. He served as district attorney of this county in 1869 by appointment. He was elected to the House of Representatives in November, 1902 and re-elected in November of last year. Had he been able to attend to the duties of his position, he would, by general consent, have been accorded a foremost place among the House leaders of the session, one of the leading committee chairmanships having been assigned him.

Mr. Ray was for some time a trustee of Allegheny College and his counsel was highly valued by his associates on the Board. He also served for several years as treasurer of the college.

The funeral was held from the home on Diamond Park Sunday afternoon. The Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, of which Mr. Ray was a member, attended in a body.

QUILL CLUB MEETS IN LIBRARY.

An Excellent Meeting and a Large Attendance.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Quill Club held its regular monthly meeting. The reading room of the library was fittingly prepared for the occasion, the seating arrangements being a large circle.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Crawford, who launched a topic for discussion that proved to be of immediate interest. The subject announced was the internal reform of the Quill Club, in respect to its place as the literary organization of the college.

Mr. Baker opened the discussion with a talk on the aims and purposes of the Quill Club. Mr. Robertson then criticized the Quill Club in its policy, speaking in favor of the motion that the Quill Club should have supervision of the college reporters on the downtown and out of town papers. Dr. Lockwood followed Mr. Robertson offering suggestions as to ways and means of improving the reportorial work as mentioned in the resolution.

Mr. Wilson then arose and presented in a very clear manner the difficulties that attend the reporters duties, claiming the criticism to be founded upon a lack of knowledge of what was expected and wanted by the downtown papers.

Mr. Scott ably contended that the reporter was not appreciated, and that the motion would not carry because the downtown papers would keep exclusively to themselves the right to choose their own staff. At this stage the discussion grew exceedingly interesting. Mr. Morrison spoke against unfair criticism that had been directed toward the athletic editor's duties.

After considerable discussion the motion was put and was lost. Probably no discussion this year has been more beneficial than this one.

After the regular business of the evening, the club enjoyed light refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and rarebit, at the conclusion of which the club adjourned from one of its most interesting and beneficial sessions.

GAME CALLED IN THE FOURTH INNING.

ALLEGHENY WAS HEADING BETHANY AND PLAYING STEADY BALL.

What Promised to Be a Good Contest Stopped On Account of Rain—The Gate Tags Will Be Good For Next Game.

What started out to be a rattling good contest with plenty of hitting and good fielding between the Bethany college ball team and Allegheny was stopped in the first of the fourth inning by the storm Tuesday afternoon. A good sized crowd waited in the grandstand for the rain to stop but when the clouds broke, the infield was a mill pond and further play was impossible.

Allegheny was in the lead when the game was called having scored five times to Bethany's four, of these five runs two were earned. Tustin, the Bethany pitcher, seemed to have brought everything along with him. He has pitched professional ball and he showed it. In the three innings he fanned five of the locals with his speed. Mitinger started out well and though the Bethany sluggers connected with him rather freely was pitching a steady game when the rain started.

After the game Manager Comfort announced that the tags issued at the gate will be good for admission at the next regular game. It is likely that a contest will be scheduled with some college team for next Friday or Saturday.

That's The Place Where College Boys

LIKE TO BUY THEIR Clothing and Furnishings, and they do buy them there.

This place has been the college boy's store and it is more popular than ever this season — for many reasons. First, because they are used as they like to be used; because we make a specialty of Clothing and Furnishings for Young Men and College Men; because we have extra style if you want it.

Here is what we've done since college closed last term: We've taken the second floor of the block and remodeled it and now have as well a clothing place as you'll find in any city, and this improvement gives us four times the room that we had last term. We have four times the stock of clothing and fixings that we had

Spalding's Official Athletic Almanac

For 1905

Edited by J. E. SULLIVAN

(Chief of Department of Physical Culture, Louisiana Purchase Exposition.)

Should be read by every college student, as it contains the records of all college athletes and amateur events in this country and abroad. It also contains a complete review of the Olympic Games from the official report of Director Sullivan and a resume of the two days devoted to sports in which savages were the only contestants, in which it is proved conclusively that savages are not the natural born athletes we have heretofore supposed them to be. This is the first time in which the athletic performances of savages have ever been systematically recorded. This is the largest Athletic Almanac ever published, containing 320 pages. Numerous illustrations of prominent athletes and track teams.
