

November 23, 1928.

Mr. Herbert F. Jenkins, Vice pres.,
Little, Brown & Company,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Jenkins:

I delayed replying to your letter of November 15, saying that you were sending me the second portion of Ludwig's "Lincoln", until the manuscript should arrive. It came yesterday and I shall give it as early a reading as possible. As I warned you I am very much occupied by my work here so that there may be some delay, and in any case I should not want you to consider my reading of this portion as any more final than that of the first.

Assuring you that I shall do my best in the time at my disposal, believe me.

Very sincerely yours,
