

PRESIDENT EMERITUS SPEAKS AT TUESDAY CHAPEL SERVICE

Dr. W. H. Crawford Gives Five Elements For a Successful Life

Dr. William H. Crawford, President Emeritus of the College, delivered in his usual forceful manner a message of benefit and inspiration to the students at Chapel yesterday morning.

Since his retirement from the presidency of Allegheny, three years ago, Dr. Crawford has been traveling extensively, and has had opportunity to study in a disinterested way the students and conditions in numerous colleges. Although at Allegheny only the Seniors are now familiar to him, he complimented all the students for the keenness and determination of their that a new emphasis is being placed on extra-curricular activities to the detriment of studies. Without depreciating the importance of activities Dr. Crawford asserted that, as long as three-fourths of the college graduates who became eminent come from the one-fourth who lead their classes, success in studies is largely a measure of success in later work.

A strong, clean character is also an asset that is requisite to success. A young man cannot afford to stoop to chicanery while he is in college. There is no other place where a trick will get out sooner or more surely. An act of crookedness performed in college will follow a man the rest of his life and be a permanent injury to his reputation.

Another characteristic of the potentially successful man is a proper ambition. Every student should have a definite purpose and ideal to guide him. Association with, and imitation of great men in one's chosen profession is necessary to appreciation of the profession.

"I bank a great deal on the student who gets fun out of his work," said Dr. Crawford. One must enjoy one's work to do it effectively. Dr. Crawford illustrated this by a number of instances of good students who failed to get along because they looked on their work as drudgery.

Finally, a capacity for companionship marks the student who is going to succeed. A friendly spirit and facility in getting along with people does much to advance a man in the world.

Dr. Crawford concluded by saying that the presence of the foregoing characteristics in a student practically insures his ability to succeed.

appearance, and compared the mercy favorably to students in other colleges. In his visits to various educational institutions Dr. Crawford is frequently asked by students for his opinion on educational problems. The most frequent question that is asked him is: "Do you know, when students are in college, which ones will succeed in later life?" Dr. Crawford declared emphatically that it is possible for college executives to predict with almost invariable certainty just which students will attain distinction and success in later life.

In judging students there are five characteristics, the possession of which indicates that the student will likely achieve much in his subsequent career.

The first of these is a fairly good mentality and its expression in actual achievement. In a general survey of the scholastic standing of students in various colleges, Dr. Crawford found

LOCAL PASTOR SPEAKS ON CHRISTIAN IDEALS

REV. E. L. McILVAINE ADDRESSES STUDENTS AT CHAPEL WEDNESDAY

Drawing a lesson from the story of Christ's transfiguration, as told in the Gospel of St. Matthew, the Rev. E. L. McIlvaine, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, spoke at the Chapel service last Wednesday morning.

In this time when social and political unrest are having so deadly an influence on governments and institutions, Reverend McIlvaine said that it is important that we recognize a few great truths, and hold to them.

Just as the disciples, "when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no man save Jesus only," so we must keep the ideal of Christian character constantly before us. Christ is absolutely fundamental to the life of the world.

By consistently holding before us Christian ideals we come to see, through the vision of Christ, a transformed and transfigured world. Since we come to resemble those with whom we associate, our characters become ennobled by the ideal of Christ.

Reverend Mr. McIlvaine expressed pity for the man who is so engrossed in his material that he is unconscious of his potential spiritual rewards, and so misses the inspiration of an upward vision. "Without the upward look there can be no uplift," he said.

R. P. LANE TO SPEAK ON RUHR OCCUPATION

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB HAS OPEN MEETING TOMORROW EVENING

Mr. R. P. Lane, speaking as a lecturer for the Institute of International Education, will give a free public address in Alden Hall tomorrow evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock, on "The French, the British and the Ruhr." Mr. Lane comes to Allegheny as the guest of the History and Political Science Club. He will be entertained by that organization at a dinner to be given at the Lafayette Hotel before the lecture.

The lecturer was formerly European director of the work of the Junior American Red Cross, and at one time was Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan. Mr. Lane has gathered a great deal of first hand information about the European situation, gleaned from his personal experiences for the last three years throughout the whole of Europe. He is said to be an agreeably pleasant speaker and is genuinely interested in the settlement of international relations.

Mr. Lane is at the present time spending three months in America lecturing before different clubs devoted to the study of the complications of modern international relations. The vital bearing which his subject for tomorrow night, the Ruhr occupation, has upon the solution of international problems should assure the speaker a large audience of thinking Alleghenians.

TALK ON WILD FLOWERS GIVEN IN ALDEN HALL

PROFESSOR DALE E. THOMAS SPEAKS UNDER AUSPICES OF PHI BETA PHI

Many beautiful wild flowers, some of which are very rare in Crawford county, were shown in their natural habitats and colors, at an illustrated lecture given by Professor Dale E. Thomas under the auspices of the Phi Beta Phi biological fraternity in Alden Hall a week ago tonight.

Stereoptical views of two hundred different varieties of wild flowers were flashed upon the screen while Professor Thomas identified them for the audience and made a short comment upon each one. In his talk, Professor Thomas mentioned the method of fertilization or of propagation of the plant, its time of blooming and choice of habitat, and any other distinctive features it might have.

Bloodroot was used by the red man for painting himself and for dyes, and to a surprising number of plants the Indians attributed medicinal properties. Very often, however, their belief was erroneous, being based upon the testimony of an occasional person whose recovery was probably due more to nature than the remedy which he had taken. Lungwort was supposed by them to relieve affections of the lungs, and shinleaf was applied to aching shins.

At the present time the Liverwort and the common burdock are used as tonic and boneset, and the Joe Pye weeds are made into fever tea. The woolly mullen leaf was one of the earliest forms of rouge, producing an irritation when rubbed against the cheeks that resulted in a fairly lasting flush.

Jack in the pulpit or Indian turnip was used by the Indians for food, and the pokeberry is used to some extent for making ink and also pies. From the root of chicory is made a substitute.

MOTHER OF DR. ROSS DIES SUNDAY EVENING

Mrs. J. S. Ross, mother of Dr. C. F. Ross, passed away Sunday evening, May 20, at her home in Cambridge Springs. Mrs. Ross was in her seventy-ninth year. She had been in poor health for some time, but did not take seriously ill until a week before her death.

Professor Ross absented himself from his duties as registrar to be at his mother's bedside during her last few days and to attend her funeral.

MANY TALENTED ARTISTS TO BE HERE NEXT YEAR

COLLEGE CONCERT SERIES FOR 1923-24 IS ANNOUNCED

Five concerts by America's foremost artists have been secured for the 1923-1924 series of the Allegheny College concerts, which will excel even the one just completed and that of the year before.

At the last number of the past series, which was given by Miss Suzanne Keener, Dr. Church took the opportunity to announce the plans of the association for the coming year, and expressed pleasure at the splendid success of the past. The solid financial basis of the association at the present time shows that the concerts are appreciated and well attended, but next year's program will be much better than any dared before. Although several individual concerts of the preceding series have been excellent, a balanced program presenting a good violinist and a pianist as well as one or two singers and an ensemble number has never been attempted. There will be one of each next year.

Printed sheets were distributed showing photographs of the most prominent artists who are to come, and an announcement of the program as follows:

1. October 25. Mme. Cecile de Horwath, pianist, who has toured Europe and America as one of the foremost pianists of the day. She has made six appearances with the New York (Continued on page 2.)

MEADVILLE CHORAL PRESENTS CANTATA

PROFESSOR LEE HESS BARNES DIRECTS "JOAN OF ARC"

Another notable success was achieved by the Meadville Choral Society in the presentation of "Joan of Arc" at the Stone Church last Thursday evening. An immense audience filled the gallery and crowded the church to the doors to hear this delightful cantata by Gaul under the direction of Professor Lee Hess Barnes of the College of Music.

In a beautiful way the cantata brought out the story of the remarkable career of "The Maid of Orleans," her humble birth and childhood, and the call to become the saviour of France. It depicted the sacrifice of her youthful companionships to don the garb of a man and seek the aid of Robert de Baudricourt in the siege of Orleans, and the devotion with which she was followed by her youthful admirer, Philip. After the achievement of a triumphant victory came rejection and betrayal and a terrible death at the stake.

Mr. Walter Fawcett was organist for the concert and Mr. Walter Kinkaid, pianist. The leading characters were happily chosen and Mrs. Ethel Moore Miller's representation of Joan of Arc was received with commendation. Fred Loesch as "Phillip" and Clyde Miller as "Robert" filled their roles fully as well, and each solo number, duet, or selection by the large chorus of male and female voices called forth hearty applause.

The features of the program were a duet by Mrs. Miller and Mr. Loesch; a tenor solo by Mr. Loesch, "Oh Where is Joan?"; the baritone solo, "Who Would Not Fight For Freedom?" by Mr. Miller; and Mrs. Miller's soprano solo, "The Memories of Home."

Within a few weeks the Choral Society will follow this triumph with an even greater undertaking than "Joan of Arc." Mendelssohn's "Elijah," which will be presented in the Park (Continued on page 3.)

The other members elected to the board are Mary Dorn, vice-president; Virginia Berry, secretary-treasurer; Eleanor Taylor, first junior member; Virginia Debolt, second junior member; Janette Waring, sophomore member.

ALLEGHENY TRACK AND FIELD MEN DEFEATED BY GENEVA

First Loss of Season Scores 70-56; Two Local Records Are Broken

Allegheny closed its home track season last Saturday, when it dropped an exciting dual meet to Geneva College on Montgomery field by a 70-56 score. The meet was close throughout, and it was not until the last two events were run off that the Beaver Falls squad was assured of its victory.

Although almost every event on the program was interesting and closely contested, perhaps the feature number was the discus throw which was won by big Fred Parnell. The Allegheny giant, in his best heave of 130 feet, 6 inches, established a new college record for this event as he bettered the long-standing one of 123 feet, 5 inches, which was made in 1914 by "Chuck" Dotterer.

Geneva showed its superiority in the running events and copped first places in all of the contests that were settled on the cinder path. Windram, the Covenanters' speedboy, won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes. In the low hurdles he also came out on top. Captain Wimmer failed to show his usual brilliant running in the quarter and half mile runs, and Geneva proved best in these. The half mile was an especially pretty race, as Mackintosh barely nosed out Wimmer for second place honors after both had given Denver, a Beaver Falls runner, a good chase.

Mackintosh's time on this run was 4 minutes and 40.4 seconds, which beat the college record established by Kirschner last year, by 1.6 seconds.

In the hurdles and the hundred yard dash, Dick Ellsworth was also bested, although by slim margins in every case. The two mile run was another pretty affair, although paced off in rather slow time. Hays, Geneva's sorrel topped star, placed first in the long distance grind as his wonderful sprint enabled him to finish well out in front. McKeivey and Beyer finished second and third.

Geneva was weak in the pole vault and the high jump, and as a result Allegheny took all of the places in those events. In the high jump an unusual incident occurred when three Blue and Gold men, Agnew, Parnell and Judd, all tied for first place. Shupe of the visitors proved to be the best of the broad jumpers and trimmed up Judd and Brownell with his pretty spring of 20 feet, 8 inches.

Windram was high scorer of the meet as the result of his taking three first places which netted him a total of 15 points. Parnell was the best individual man for Allegheny with 13 points, while Judd was not far behind him with eleven. Summary:

TRACK EVENTS

100 Yard Dash—1, Windram (G); 2, Ellsworth (A); 3, Boulding (G). Time: 10.4 seconds.

Half Mile Run—1, McKeivey (G); 2, Mackintosh (A); 3, McKnight (G). Time: 4 minutes, 39.8 seconds.

GLEE CLUB GIVES CONCERT TOMORROW

COLLEGE MUSICAL ORGANIZATION WILL SING IN ACADEMY THEATRE AT 8:15

At their last appearance this year, the Academy College Glee Club will present their full program at the Academy Theatre tomorrow night at 8:15. For an added attraction to those who are expecting to go early, there will be a motion picture program from seven o'clock until the beginning of the Glee Club concert at 8:15. The college students and townspeople who were unable to attend the home appearance of the organization, will now be able to hear the club's full program at it was presented at Pittsburgh and Warren, and at one half the price heretofore charged. This will be the initial appearance of the Glee Club in a down town concert, and if it is successful it will become an annual event on the Glee Club's calendar. Tickets for the concert can be secured at the door, or from members

CONSTRUCTION MODELS DISPLAYED AT RUTER

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT MAKES ADVANCES IN ITS FIELD

On display in the drafting room in Ruter Hall are numerous models showing the methods of highway construction considered by the Surveying VII class. These models are sent out to colleges and universities having courses in highway engineering by the United States Department of Agriculture and may be kept by each institution for a limited time. Allegheny is fortunate in securing the models and has been given permission to keep them until school closes.

There are ten sets of these road and drainage models in circulation. They have been out for a year and a half and were built under the supervision of the Highway Transport Education Committee with government co-operation. The financial end of the proposition was taken care of by the automobile interests of the country.

C. J. Tilden, of Yale University, was chairman of the committee which decided upon the models, and he engaged Prof. R. H. Skelton, who is now instructor in the engineering department here, to design them. It was through the influence of Prof. Skelton that the models were secured for the use of the engineering students at Allegheny.

There are nine road models, five drainage models and a rubber display supplied through the courtesy of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company in the exhibit which will be here for the remainder of the college year. The students and faculty are invited to examine the models which show the stages of construction and various types of roads.

The modes in the exhibit include that which represents the ordinary earth road to the highest type of modern highway—concrete and vitified brick. The other road models are sand-clay, gravel, Macadam, Bituminous Macadam surface treatment, Bituminous Macadam (Penetration Method). (Continued on page 2.)

OUR MEET WITH GENEVA

The first, last, and only real track meet of the season is now but a memory, but in passing, it seems only fair to comment on what was probably the best intercollegiate track and field meet that Blue and Gold followers have had the opportunity to witness for some time. Every event with one or possibly two exceptions, was hotly contested. Geneva presented a well balanced combination which was especially strong in the track events. The visiting captain, Windram, displayed perfect form in taking the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the 220 yard low hurdle event. On the other hand Blue and Gold football men exhibited their prowess in the field. Fred Parnell broke the old record of C. M. Dotterer made in 1914, when he hurled the discus a distance of 130 feet 6 inches. Again in the pole vault the versatile Miller all but established a new college record. Thus everybody was kept on edge throughout the afternoon as it was not until the final events that Geneva secured an appreciable lead. Up to that time the two teams were practically deadlocked; one or the other alternated in taking the lead. It is such contests that the sport loving student wishes to witness. Two more meets appear on the spring card, but not in Meadville. Rochester and Bonaventure should close the season with two victories credited to the Blue and Gold.

ALLEGHENY NEEDS A BAND

With the dissolution of her band Allegheny has lost an organization which fills a needed place in campus life. There are few factors which can promote college spirit more than can a lively band. Allegheny realized this truth or she would not have expended over five hundred dollars for musical instruments. These instruments now lie idle in the basement of the Library; valuable horns corroding and deteriorating from want of use. Several years ago, and even until a year ago this spring, the college band was flourishing and having successful seasons. However, disorganization shortly followed its prosperity. This unfortunate circumstance was the natural result of lack of interest on the part of some of its members, despite the loyal and commendable leadership of Mr. H. M. Maitland. There are definite reasons for believing there now exists sufficient interest among the musically inclined students to make reorganization feasible. But a leader is needed. Allegheny would do well to secure, employ, or in some manner arrange for a leader to assemble our musicians, make use of the stored instruments, and produce a band. The effort and expense involved would have its compensation in having our teams encouraged to victory by Allegheny music, or in enjoying concerts at Commencement and other occasions.

od), Bituminous Concrete (Topeka specifications). The drainage models show the cast iron pipe culvert, concrete box culvert, concrete arch culvert, concrete bridge (T-beam type), and concrete pipe culvert. The set of models that are now at Allegheny came down from M. I. T. Previous to being on display at that institution they had been at Norwich University, Dartmouth College and Cornell University this year. That the Engineering Department at Allegheny which is known as the Department of Mathematics and Surveying is making rapid advances under the capable direction of Prof. Skelton is evidenced by the fact that these road and drainage models have been obtained for lecture room purposes, and also by the fact a lecturer representing the asphalt interests of the country has appeared before the class. Walter Rosengarten from The Asphalt Association of New York City was recently secured through the efforts of Prof. Skelton to deliver an illustrated lecture to the Surveying VII class on asphalt for road building purposes.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE TENTATIVELY ANNOUNCED

ALL CONFLICTS SHOULD BE REPORTED IMMEDIATELY

With examinations but three weeks away, the registrar's office issues the tentative schedule and rules for examinations.

"The following is the examination schedule for the second term. Changes may be made in this schedule but no change will be made after May 28. The official copy of the schedule will be posted June 1. There are unavoidably a few conflicts. These should be reported to the registrar's office before May 26 that arrangements may be made. Senior examinations must be completed before Tuesday evening, June 12. Seniors who have examinations scheduled after that date will be examined specially at times to be fixed by the instructors. Examinations in one hour subjects will be limited to one and a half hours; in two hour subjects to two hours; in three hour subjects to two and a half hours; and in four hour subjects to three hours.

When a student has been absent from class for any cause one-seventh the total number of recitations or more, a supplementary examination must be taken in the subject. Supplementary examinations are to be given at the close of the examination. Members of the athletic clubs and the Glee Club are allowed four absences above such fraction each term to fill club engagements."

ARTISTS TO BE HERE

Symphony Orchestra under Walter Damrosch as conductor. With her will come Anne Wostehoff, contralto soloist of great ability.

2. November 19. Ruth St. Denis, world famous dancer, with Ted Shawn and seventeen solo dancers. They will be attended by a company of twenty-five including orchestra, assistants, and electricians, with $10,000 worth of scenery, costumes, and stage settings. This unique and attractive concert has been favorably received throughout the United States, and the performance has been recently changed, making it even better than before.

3. January 31, 1924. The New York Trio, composed of Edward Adler, pianist, Scipio Guidi, violin, and Cornelius Van Vliet, cello. It has been pronounced "A trio on par with the Flozaley Quartette."

4. March 20. Katherine Meisle, mezzo, a new American star of the first rank. Miss Meisle has sung with large symphony orchestras and has made a name for herself among the really great singers of the day. Another soloist of distinction will appear with Miss Meisle, but arrangements have not yet been completed.

5. April 10 or 12. Emil Telmanyi, greatest Hungarian violinist. The New York papers reported his first violin solo of two years ago—"Telmanyi is the most exciting experience of this sort one has had since Kreisler burst upon America." His playing is electrifying and magnetic, and he stands in the very front rank of the few world-famed violinists. Guitia Vas, pianist and accompanist, will play with Mr. Telmanyi.

The management hopes to obtain a new high school auditorium for next year's concerts, but this will depend upon the circumstances: whether the building is completed, and whether the course is sufficiently well supported. For this reason all who are interested are urged to subscribe for tickets immediately in order to lay its plans for the future. If four hundred seats are subscribed for beforehand, the association will feel justified in hiring the new auditorium. At any rate the chapel cannot be used, for the concerts have outgrown it.

Seats may be ordered by mail from Dr. H. W. Church, 296 Loomis Street, Meadville, Pa.

Edison H. Baker, '17, is with the Bankers' Trust Company, New York City.

GARRETT
Established in 1865

One of the really great theological seminaries of the country.
WALTER DILL SCOTT, President
Northwestern University

"With intimate acquaintance of most of the seminaries of the United States, extending from the time when I was president of the Federal Council, I wish to offer my testimony that no church in American Protestantism has, taking it by and large, any higher grade of seminaries than has Methodism. In development of curricula, modern scholarship, and general progressiveness, I think they are in the very van of theological education and in the matter of supervised field work they have made a distinct place for themselves. Of the Methodist group Garrett stands in the forefront."

CLUB ACTIVITIES

LE PETIT SALON

Under the direction of Professor J. L. Russo, a lively and entertaining program was presented to the members of Le Petit Salon which met at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house on Monday, May 14.

The opening number of the program was a "Quadrille Francaise" in which the dancers were the Misses Frances Anderson, Katherine Haines, Marlon Spangler, Margaret Dougherty, and the Messrs. R. S. Courtney, J. M. Pratt, E. A. Hill, and A. B. Miller. This was followed by a "Louis Quinze" waltz with Miss Mary Jackson as accompanist. The second number was a recitation by Miss Frances Severson of "L'Ode a Lucie," a poem by Alfred de Musset. The feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a scene from "L'Avare" by Moliere in which Mr. Theodore Lorz played the part of Harpagon, a miserly, decrepit old man, and Mr. Raymond Courtney acted the role of Froisine, a woman who attempted artful flattery and deception to induce the consumptive to marry her young charge.

At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served and after singing "Ja Marsellaise," the meeting was adjourned.

Y. W. C. A.

Members of the Eaglesmere Club had charge of the Sunday evening Y. W. service led by Dorothy Leeper. Alice Grenelle spoke of the types of girls attending the conferences at Eaglesmere each summer. She said they are wide-awake girls, keenly interested in the world's activities and all anxious to make of themselves, useful Christian workers.

Sylvia Barnes discussed the meetings which mean so much to the religious life of the girls. The recreational side of camp life, discussed by Isabelle Gilmore, consists chiefly of tennis hiking and swimming.

Plans are being made to send an Allegheny delegation to Eaglesmere again this summer.

TALK ON WILD FLOWERS

tute for coffee that can scarcely be distinguished from the real beverage, and in fact, the English people prefer a mixture of the two to pure coffee.

Besides the values already named most of these plants have beautiful blossoms. As examples of how the wildflowers may be improved by breeding and selection, Mr. Thomas mentions the hydrangia and the mountain laurel. These two magnificent shrubs were not nearly so fine in the wild state.

There were several very fine landscape scenes of bluets, phlox, and others, as well as many beautiful single flowers. One of the most peculiar was the sundew plant, that feeds on insects which it catches with a form of glue.

In concluding the lecture, Professor Thomas expressed the desire that any good which might have been received from it would lead to the protection of the wild flowers, for some species, like the beautiful orchids, are very rare, and unless encouraged become extinct in the community.

Theatre on June 7, uses the dramatic story of I Kings, chapters seventeen to nineteen, dealing with the triumph of monotheism over the immoral nature worship favored by the royal court of Ahab and Jezebel. Elijah's prophecy of drought and famine for the correction of Israel serves as a prologue. The music which follows is varied to every mood of the suffering people, tense with the prophet's conflict with the priests of Baal, tender and reposeful in expressing the heavenly comfort vouchsafed to Elijah exiled in the desert, thrilling with the narrative of his translation to heaven in the chariot of fire.

"Elijah" is said to be the greatest of all dramatic oratorios. It will be given by the one hundred voices of the Choral Society, with an accompanying orchestra and the following assistant artists for solo work: Mr. Rollin Pease, Chicago, baritone, Marie DeKzyer, New York, soprano, and Mr. Will Rhodes, Pittsburgh, tenor.

Bertha Miller, '01, of Butler, who is working toward the foundation of an Alumni Association of Allegheny in her home city, will take a trip in June to California where she will attend the meeting of the National Education Association. The trip will be extended to include the Grand Canyon, Arizona, Southern California, Oregon, Washington, Yellowstone Park, Salt Lake City and Colorado.

SPORT NOTES

Princeton's nine is showing the way to college baseball teams in the East. The Tigers are playing a consistently good brand of ball, evidenced by the fact that they have won fourteen straight games.

Harvard lost to Princeton in their annual track classic last Saturday, 85½ to 49½. C. R. McKim, Princeton, set a new mark for the meet in the 100 yard dash, covering the distance in 9.45 seconds. A new javelin throw record was set too, when Green edge of Harvard hurled the shaft 180 feet, 6 inches. R. H. Hills, Princeton, beat the former 16 pound shot mark by 4 feet with a heave of 49 feet 1 inch.

Earl Thompson's West Virginia track team took Pitt over in their dual meet 74 to 61. In spite of the fact that four West Virginia University records were smashed there were no particularly good marks made, except a javelin throw of 177 feet by Chrisman of the Mountaineer squad.

Bethany's great ball team knocked off the strong Penn State nine Saturday, 5 to 0.

ALLEGHENY TRACK MEN TO GO TO ROCHESTER

CLOSE CONTEST IS EXPECTED WITH NEW YORKERS

Coach Hammett, accompanied by about fifteen members of the Allegheny track squad, will leave sometime Friday morning for Rochester, N. Y., where the Blue and Gold athletes are to meet the strong team representing the University of Rochester on Saturday, May 26. This will be the first time that these two teams have ever met on the cinder path, and, as no definite records pertaining to the strength of the New Yorkers are available, no prediction as to the final outcome can be made.

The meet is certain to be close, however, for in the past years intermittent relations have been kept up between the two schools in other branches of athletics. The results of these contests testify to the fact that Rochester has always had good teams. In the years when Allegheny boasted basketball teams of championship calibre, some six games were played with the University of Rochester, the results being about even; of the three times that they have met on the gridiron, Allegheny has been fortunate to return the victor, 6-0, 7-0, and 19-0.

ALLEGHENY RACQUETTERS
BREAK EVEN ON TRIP

The first invasion made by the Allegheny tennis team of the tri-state district resulted in an even break. Washington and Jefferson, met Saturday, humbled the Blue and Gold, 4-2. Westminster proved easy in the match on Monday and was unable to garner a single tournament of the six played.

W. and J., on Saturday, exhibited just as brilliant a brand of tennis as they flashed here two weeks ago. Cachran was defeated by Fredericks, the W. and J. star. Captain Clark played the best tennis for Allegheny, winning in both his singles and doubles matches. Pratt and McQuiston, the newcomers on the team, played good tennis.

At New Wilmington on Monday the team met no opposition, every singles and doubles match being won.

Summaries—W. & J. Match
Singles:
Fredericks, W. & J., defeated Cochran, A., 6-4, 6-8, 6-3.
Knoepp, W. & J., defeated Pratt, A., 6-2, 6-3.
Naser, W. & J., defeated Pratt, A., 6-2, 6-3.
Clark, A., defeated Fulton, W. & J., 3-6, 6-0, 6-3.
Doubles:
Naser and Knoepp, W. & J., defeated Cochran and McQuiston, A., 7-5, 6-3.
Clark and Pratt, A., defeated Fredericks and Skelton, W. & J., 6-2, 6-2.
Westminster Match
Singles:
Cochran, A., defeated Cummings, W., 7-5, 2-6, 8-6.
Clark, A., defeated McFate, 3-6, 6-0, 6-3.
McQuiston, A., defeated Jones, W., 6-0, 6-1.
Pratt, A., defeated Crow, W., 6-2, 6-3.
Doubles:
Cochran and Clark, A., defeated Cummings and McFate, W., 6-4, 6-3.
McQuiston and Pratt, A., defeated Crow and Skillely, W., 6-1, 6-1.

COURT MEN PLAN FOR BUSY WEEK-END

The latter half of this week finds the Allegheny tennis squad scheduled for two, and possibly three, matches. Westminster plays here today and the Meadville racquetters go to Carnegie Tech Saturday. Manager Clarke is attempting to arrange a match with Thiel at Greenville for Thursday. The Blue and Gold team is in the midst of a strenuous schedule and several wins are necessary to make the season a success.

The match today with Westminster will be one of the best to be seen on the local courts. The 6-0 victory over that team last week does not indicate the strength of the Presbyterians. Cummings, especially, is a star and his work will be of exceptional interest.

Chuck Garland's Tech team needs no introduction and the defeat suffered at its hands still smarts. The squad will go to Pittsburgh Saturday pledged to bring back a victory over one of the best teams in Western Pennsylvania.

Little is known of the Thiel courtstmen, but the Allegheny team is planning for a victory.

INTERFRATERNITY MEET
SCHEDULED FOR JUNE 7

COACH HAMMETT OFFERS ASSISTANCE TO MEN INTENDING TO COMPETE

Inasmuch as June 7 is only two weeks away, several fraternities are already training for the annual Interfraternity Track Meet which will be held on Montgomery Field the afternoon of that day. This event, instituted in 1921, admits both varsity and non-varsity entrants. The complete track program will be run off if there are entries for all events, and it is possible that several additional races will be added.

Coach Hammett states that any men who wish to come out in the afternoons will be given the full benefit of varsity coaching and practice. Weight men are asked to report between the hours of two and four, while runners will be given the preference from four to six.

In 1921, the first year the Interfraternity Meet was held, Alpha Chi Rho won the trophy, and last year Delta Tau Delta won the final event and the cup. The latter meet was so closely contested that the victors were only one-half point ahead of the runners up.
