Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I received your letter of October 21st and am enclosing you herewith contract for lecturing during the winter season of 1921-22. I hope the time suggested meets with your approval. Please sign and return the contracts to us, and we will then sign and return one copy to you.

Now in reference to your list of subjects for this winter's speaking, I have talked with the managers in whose territory you will lecture, and they are of the opinion it would be well for you to speak along the line of Industrial Relations. That is a topic that is attracting nation wide attention. If you wish to send me on the topics to announce, I will pass them on to the others interested. I will be glad to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours very truly,

LJA-MG. General Manager.
