OWEN D. YOUNG

June 9, 1931

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am enclosing the correspondence about the beefsteaks, about which you were inquiring yesterday. My recollection is that Mr. Crocker told me about it to show Mr. Young's fairness, thoughtfulness in criticism or praise, tact and humor. It is really in two parts, as you will see. I suggest that you show Mr. Crocker these letters when you see him sometime.

I am also sending you one or two documents on the Young Plan which I think will be helpful. The New York Times for June 9, 1929 had a great deal of valuable information in special articles by P. J. Philip (About Mr. Young), Lewis Jones and Edwin L. James. I have them in the files here if you wish to look at them. I also have some books as background material which I think you might like to read about the Dawes Committee and German reparations in general.

I did enjoy my luncheon with you so much yesterday and thank you again for it.

Cordially yours,

Miss B Russell
