Mr. William P. Hall
274 Sanford Road
Upper Darby, Pa.

My dear Mr. Hall:

I am sorry that an answer to your letter of April 15th has been delayed, particularly since you failed to find me at Christmas time. I was not in New York at that time. If you wrote me a letter it was either lost or in some way overlooked.

Of course I shall be glad to autograph the books of which you speak. If you will send them to this address I shall attend to them promptly.

As to Mr. Henry B. Rankin - no, he is not living. He died several years ago in Springfield, Illinois. I believe that his sons are still living there and if you want any information about him you could get it from them. I do not know their initials, but probably a letter addressed, Rankin, would reach them.

If I can be of any further help to you in your collecting please command me.

Very truly yours
