Dear Mrs. [redacted]

Thank you for sending me a copy of Mrs. Roosevelt's letter. It is fine and I take it just what you want. I hope you are not going to have too hard a time for raising the money for printing and mailing. Sorry it is impossible for me to help and that I have no suggestions.

There is no bill for the photostat - it amounted to very little and that I am glad to contribute.

I shall be out of town until September but a note here to Mrs. Wolfe will receive prompt attention.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely

Mrs. Lucy Helen Pearson
