Feb. 4, 1918.

Mr. M. C. Turner,
Dixie Lyceum Bureau,
Dallas, Texas.

My dear Mr. Turner:

I have your letter of January 23rd, saying that my first date for you will be about the 21st of March at Durant, Ok.

Will you let me know in New York as soon as possible the number of engagements you expect me to fill. I hope you will make it as easy traveling for me as you can. I find I am not yet quite as strong as usual after my long illness. I would prefer not to put in more than four engagements a week if you can manage it, taking a little more time to the trip.

In returning to New York can you route me thru or near Wichita, Kans.? I want to stop over for a little visit there with my nephew.

Very sincerely yours,

P. S. It is understood, I believe I am to talk on the War. I am calling my talk "The Inner Line of Defense".

IMT.
